¿En quién está la autoridad que libera?

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Marcos presenta algo como la jornada de Jesús. Primero, él está en la sinagoga enseñando con autoridad, no como los maestros de la ley que repiten e interpretan la misma. Su autoridad se presenta al ordenar salir al espíritu impuro del hombre que entró a la sinagoga, y comienza a gritar a Jesús. "Yo sé que tú eres el Santo de Dios". Jesús le ordena: "¡Cállate y sal de ese hombre! (Marcos 1:26). Nos dice el Evangelio que a causa de ese milagro su fama se extendía por todo el territorio de Galilea.

Jesús tenía autoridad porque hablaba con la verdad, lo que proclamaba de justicia, lo hacía él mismo, no tenía doblez, era la bondad misma de Dios en el mundo. La autoridad de Jesús es más fuerte que el mal. Lo decimos al final del Padrenuestro: "No nos dejes caer en tentación y libranos del mal". Sí, Señor, libranos como al hombre endemoniado de tu tiempo, de los males que nos aquejan hoy día, enfermedad, hambre, e injusticia. Además, danos una ayudadita, con los líderes del mundo con respecto a la autoridad. Que sean respetuosos, leales al pueblo, que hagan leyes justas que protejan a todos. La sociedad de hoy necesita palabras con autoridad que erradiquen el mal. ¿Crees tú que Jesús puede liberar en este tiempo? ¿En quién está la autoridad que libera? No tenemos que pensarlo mucho. La autoridad está en cada uno de nosotros. Se nota en la justicia y el trabajo por la paz que llevemos a cabo en la familia, la sociedad y en el mundo.

The Ascension Lenten Companion with Fr. Toups

A Personal Encounter with the Power of the Gospel

PURCHASE THE JOURNAL FOR $8.50

God wants to give you more. How will you respond this Lent?

Often in our spiritual lives we think we're asking for too much, but in reality we are asking for too little. God wants to give us more, but we aren't asking for it. He wants to help us overcome our weaknesses, help us stop falling into the same old patterns — he wants to give us freedom. This Lent, ask God to give it to you so you can arrive at Easter more healed, fulfilled, and transformed than ever before.

Fr. Mark Toups, an experienced spiritual director, leads readers inward to invite the Lord to heal those areas where they need it most. He follows the same format as his popular Rejoice! journals. Readers will receive daily guidance as well as supplemental videos, to help enter more deeply into Lent and remain focused throughout the season.

MINISTRIES IN ACTION

Being Christ to Others

“How are YOU doing?”

At St. Vincent, more often than not these days, we are hearing “I never thought I would be asking for help.”

We are now Christ’s voice as well as his face to those who are downhearted, lonely, sick, or in despair offering consolation, compassion, and help.

The COVID crisis has dramatically altered the way we perform our ministries but our mission of outreach to our brothers and sisters in need is even more critical.

We cannot meet face to face with our clients now, which means one of the most important aspects of our ministry has declined. To meet that challenge, we have had to hone our listening skills, hearing beyond the spoken words and offering our prayers for healing, for job opportunities, for patience with e-learning frustrations. Thanks to all of our parishioners for your continued prayers for us, for your generosity, and for being our partners in ministry.

Stephen Ministry

When a crisis comes, call the Stephen Ministry at 864-537-4089 or email stephenministry@smmcc.org for support.

Help is Only a Phone Call Away

Are you or is someone you know going through a crisis in life? A Stephen Minister could provide the emotional and spiritual care you need when you are facing a crisis or difficulty with any of these situations: loss of a loved one, divorce or separation, loneliness or discouragement, unemployment or job crisis, terminal illness, aging, relocation, birth, adoption, recovery after illness or accident, etc.

Christ-centered confidential care from a trained Stephen Minister is a phone call away. To receive God's Love in Action (a Stephen Minister's care), please call 864-537-4089 or email stephenministry@smmcc.org.

Become a Knight

As you begin 2021, discover how the Knights of Columbus can help make a fresh start for your family and our Parish. Council 10819 has local and virtual family activities that provide the opportunity to learn about and share your faith while serving others and growing as a faithful Catholic family.

We are in need of volunteers willing to work the sound board during Masses. Duties include adjusting the volume and muting/unmuting microphones as needed throughout the Mass, as well as setting up the microphones in the music area for the musicians. Training will be provided.

You can work the same Mass you regularly attend, and can still fully participate in the Mass and receive the holy Eucharist.

Please consider this important service as an offering to God and to all those who come to the Mass at our Parish. Contact SarahC@smmcc.org if interested.

Walking with Moms in Need

"Walking with Moms in Need" in the Myrtle Beach area has an urgent need for a pregnant mom who chose life for her baby. She needs a place to stay for herself and her 10 year old son. We hope to find her a small apartment, mobile home or part of a house to share. If you are in the process of donating or trading in a car, please consider passing it on to her. Our hope is that we can help this mom, who chose life instead of abortion for her child, be a living and active witness of Christ who said "Whenever you did it for the least of my children, you did it unto me."

Please contact Joanne Bennett at joanne.bennett55@gmail.com or Terry Borkes t.borkes13@gmail.com and put "Mom in Need" in subject line.
