Exciting News from Fr. Theo

I have some exciting news to share with you! St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church has recently purchased the 2.1 acres property along Woodruff Road between our main entrance and Eastminster Presbyterian Church from the former owner's estate. The purchase price was $577,500 plus some closing costs and is approximately the amount previously offered to the owner in 2016.

For many years we have been interested in purchasing this property as it not only expands our campus by 2.1 acres but also gives a contiguous frontage presence along Woodruff Road. Our purchase also ensured that a commercial entity could not buy it and construct a building which would take away from the beauty of our campus.

The Parish's Finance Council diligently reviewed our offer as well as our cash position in savings and recommended to me the acquisition of this property. The Diocesan's General Council office greatly assisted us in the negotiations and contract process for which we are very appreciative.

Utilization of this property will be assessed in the near future through our various councils and committees as it is integrated into our overall campus Master Plan.

As always, I thank you for your prayers and continued generosity in supporting our Parish financially.

May God Bless You!

Alimento espiritual para la jornada

El ser humano por naturaleza es terco y obstinado, de corazón duro y le resulta muy difícil creer en las realidades que vive. Por ejemplo: ya ha pasado más de un año de estar viviendo esta pandemia y aún existen personas que no creen en ella. Han perdido la vida miles de personas alrededor del mundo y muchos siguen obstinados en su propio círculo. "¡Mientras a mí no me toque, que importan los demás!". La experiencia que hemos estado viviendo nos invita al cambio; es tiempo de darnos cuenta que somos frágiles y que la ciencia y la medicina, sin el poder Dios, no quedan en nada.

Hoy, en el Evangelio, Jesús insiste en dar a conocer a los de su tiempo, y a nosotros, que él es el Pan bajado del cielo para dar vida. Pero la gente seguía en su misma terquedad. No lo escucharon, mucho menos abrieron los ojos para ver. "Conocemos a su padre y a su madre, ¿no es cierto? Él no es sino Jesús, el hijo de José. ¿Cómo puede decir que ha bajado del cielo?" (Juan 6:42). Que terrible confusión, para ellos era imposible darse cuenta de lo que Jesús seguía anunciando: "Yo soy el pan vivo bajado del cielo. El que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. El pan que yo daré es mi carne, y lo daré para la vida del mundo" (Juan 6:51). Bien, y ahora, ¿qué sigue? Yo creo que debemos reflexionar en la siguiente pregunta: ¿Por qué mucha gente que asiste a Misa no comulga? Quizá porque no cree que Cristo es el verdadero pan del cielo. Recordemos que la Eucaristía es el alimento espiritual para la jornada. ¡Acerquémonos a este Pan!

What's Your Hearth Cake?

"Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." I've been to a lot of meetings in my years of work in the Church, and you can take my word for it: the ones with snacks just seem to go better.

I don't know what it is exactly. Maybe it's just that people are in a more agreeable mood if you show up with donuts. Or maybe it's about the very real sense of community and camaraderie that is created at a table where people are engaging in that most human of tasks — eating — beside one another. I think a big part of it comes down to the simple fact that we're all just nicer people when we're fed.

This rings true spiritually, too. We simply must remain fed if we, in turn, are to feed others. Think of a time when you have neglected your relationship with God — when you haven't fed yourself with whatever it is that you need to remain committed to the journey of a Christian life. Is it Mass attendance? Is it prayer or Scripture reading? Is it time with your small group, or conversation with a trusted friend who knows your soul? What sustains your ability to be a good disciple, a good steward? What inspires you to give more freely, to love more abundantly?

Whatever it is, that's your hearth cake. That's your jug of water. Don't neglect it. The Angel of the Lord is nudging you in your sleep: "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you."

Prayer Is a Surge of the Heart

—St. Therese of Lisieux

Many people want a deeper life of prayer that truly connects them to Our Lord, but are not aware how this might be accomplished. The Carmelite Order's charism is prayer. Their spirituality is centered in this meaningful, deep and fruitful life of prayer. If this is something you've thought about or if it seems to be calling you, come and see what it is to be a Lay Carmelite. Monthly community meetings are held at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Simpsonville.

For more information, contact Jacque Darveaux at 480-678-0993, or Karen Blackwell at 864-288-0076.
