He has risen!

He has risen indeed!

They all thought they had lost him. No three days were ever harder to handle for the first disciples than the three days of darkness beginning Holy Thursday evening and ending on Easter Sunday morning. This will never be lost on us ever again. Not three days, but three weeks and counting – we have lost him! “They have taken the Lord...and we don’t know where they put him.” This was the cry of Mary Magdalene when she came to the tomb.

The Lord heard her ache. Her love for him was proven in the actions of both her heart and her body during the loss that she experienced. While all the others were hiding and despairing, there she was on her feet going to find and be with any part of him as early as was possible. This she did even if she only expected to find his cold dead body in the tomb. But that is not what she found. She would eventually find him again, and in greater form than she had ever known him, in his resurrected glory!

We have lost him in bodily participation in the Mass, in the Eucharist, in the parish community! What are we doing? Are we hiding and despairing, or are we looking for him elsewhere; maybe in a form that we never knew him so well, such as in our family, in nature, in song, in deepened prayer? He has always been in Scripture and I never needed to go to Church to find him there. Have I cracked the Bible even once in these past three weeks?

Mary was the first allowed to see him again (Jn 20:16). Was this just because she was lucky? Or was it his response to her love? Is not having an opportunity to be with Jesus at Mass or receive Jesus in the Eucharist making my heart desire and love him more? If not, why?

May my Easter joy be greater than ever before, because my love for HIM for whom my heart aches has risen, like never before.

May God bless and keep all of you and yours always,

Father John Linden

A Sacred Space in Your Home

What does a sacred space look like?

A Sacred space is a designated space in your home where it is easy to sit in the presence of God. It is a very simple, quiet place with either a few or many religious items. It should be distinctly different from the rest of the house so that it is "set apart". However, different does not mean expensive. The sacred space is typically a table-top, like a small table set against a wall, possibly in a corner. You could include a few religious items.

Possible Items to Include

- Catholic Bible (picture Bible or board book or very little kids)
- Crucifix (small one to pass around for very little kids)
- Prayer Cards
- Sacred art (cutouts from previous year's calendar or Christmas Cards)
- Rosaries
- Candles
- Statue of Mary or other saints
- Holy Water
- Intercessory Prayer Basket
- Pillows for sitting on the floor
- Prayer journals for each family member (remember these are private)

COVID—19 Response

This is what we are planning.

Everything is subject to change.

Although our West Entrance Doors are Open, we are only open for personal prayer, and no more than 10 people at a time.

Please stay up to date by visiting our website and receiving Flocknote emails/texts from our Parish Staff members.

- First, the Church has been thoroughly sanitized and we will continue to re-sanitize daily!
- The Church will be open for limited prayer. We are limiting those praying to no more than ten at a time. You are asked to spread out as far as possible from others except for family members that are presently living together.
- Scheduled times for the Church to be open are as follows:
 - Every day from 12:00pm-8:00pm
 - Only one door will be open on the West side of the Church under the car port entrance. It is the electronic door and so please bump the wheelchair door opener with your elbow to avoid touching the door handle.
- Outdoor Confessions
 - There will be extended confession times to stretch out the lines through the day and in fact you can line up in your cars. (Weather permitting) We will have confessions outside behind the Church by the Columbarium (don't worry, right now, only your sins will be laid to rest there). Should the weather not permit, we will have alternate instructions for confessions in the Church on any day of inclement weather.
 - The confession schedule for present is
 - Monday, Wednesday, Friday 4:30 pm—6:00 pm.
 - Saturday 12:00 noon—2:00 pm
- The offices will be operational on a limited basis but not opened. We are asking everyone to not come into the office. Please handle all matters by phone, email, or other form of electronic communication.
- We will continue to record Mass at 9:00am (Sunday-Friday) and hope to upload to our Website by 11:00am each day

Introducing, Parish Outreach Ministry

St. Andrew

Parish Outreach Hotline

(734) 726-0013

How You Can Help

We'd like to share with you an opportunity for you to help support members of our parish family during this time.

A couple of weeks ago, Father John and Deacon Doug asked that we organize a group of parishioners to start a system of on-going phone outreach to the members of our St. Andrew parish family who are over the age of 65.

The purpose of the phone calls is simply to check in, see how they are doing, and find out what they might need help with. While we cannot promise anything, we have many parishioners at St. Andrew who would happily lend a hand to these folks.

However, we can't provide assistance if we don't know what's needed!

This is where we could use your help. We already have people who have been making calls, but we could use more volunteers in order to be able to call everyone weekly.

To be one of our callers, you will need access to a computer. We provide a script for you to follow with each call, and there is an online form to complete after each call so that we can track how the calls are going and who needs assistance.

Don't worry, there is an orientation video that walks you through the process!

If this sounds like something you're interested in helping with, please let Marissa Dawson know at: youth@standrewsaline.org.

Thank you!

Parish Outreach

If you need assistance with anything during this time—

—especially if you are hesitant to risk leaving your home due to your age, your health, recent contact with someone who has been sick, or just out of an abundance of caution—please let us know how we can help you by leaving a message by calling our Phone Outreach Hotline: (734) 726-0013 and we will do our best to safely assist you.

St. Andrew Church
Phone Outreach Hotline
734-726-0013

We will do our best to safely assist you.

We are also happy to lend an ear and pray with you over the phone, if you are in need of that support!

If you would be interested in assisting with this outreach—either with placing phone calls, or with responding to requests for assistance, please contact Marissa Dawson at youth@standrewsaline.org or 734-429-6116.

I also continue to ask you to be in contact with the elderly and vulnerable neighbors around you and make sure that they are being cared for and/or help to meet their needs yourself if you are able.

May the Lord continue to be our Light amid the darkness and allow us to share that Light with others.

Blessings and Peace in Christ Jesus,

The Food Pantry distributes groceries and personal-care items to low-income families and individuals; between 500 and 700 people are served monthly.

Please consider partnering with us this Lenten season to ensure that those who seek our services can continue to receive the compassionate care that we strive to provide.

What a great experience we had on Palm Sunday. Father John and I distributed palms for about an hour and a half under the portico of church. We had two lanes going with well over a hundred cars coming through. It was great to see so many of you even if it was just a drive-by.

Happy Easter! He is Risen!

Rites of Initiation to be held at end of Easter Season

Bishop Boyea has moved the Sacraments of Initiation from the Easter Vigil to the Pentecost Vigil (May 30).

Adults and children who have been preparing for Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, as well as those adults who will be making a Profession of Faith and receiving Confirmation and Eucharist will be received into the Church that night.

Due to the ongoing uncertainty around COVID-19, this date is subject to change.

Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they await full initiation into the Catholic Church. Although their sacraments will not be celebrated on the Easter Vigil, we hope to welcome them full into the church when Easter Season ends on Pentecost Vigil.

Jesus of Nazareth: Holy Week by Pope Benedict XVI (Audiobook version)

For Christians, Jesus of Nazareth is the Son of God, who died for the sins of the world, and who rose from the dead in triumph over sin and death. For non-Christians, he is almost anything else--a myth, a political revolutionary, a prophet whose teaching was misunderstood or distorted by his followers. Why was Jesus rejected by the religious leaders of his day? Who was responsible for his death? Did he establish a Church to carry on his work? How did Jesus view his suffering and death? How should we? And, most importantly, did Jesus really rise from the dead and what does his resurrection mean? The story of Jesus raises many crucial questions. Benedict brings to his study the vast learning of a brilliant scholar, the passionate searching of a great mind, and the deep compassion of a pastor's heart. In the end, he dares readers to grapple with the meaning of Jesus' life, teaching, death, and resurrection. "Only in this second volume do we encounter the decisive sayings and events of Jesus' life... I hope that I have been granted an insight into the figure of Our Lord that can be helpful to all readers who seek to encounter Jesus and to believe in Him." -Pope Benedict XVI

The Year and Our Children (ebook)

Celebrate the Faith
with your kids all year round!

For over half a century, Catholic families have treasured the practical piety and homespun wisdom of Mary Reed Newland's classic of domestic spirituality. Here you'll find all the prayers, crafts, family activities, litanies, and recipes that will help make your children ever-mindful of the beautiful rhythm of the Church calendar.

When Lent comes, read Newland's simple secrets to helping your kids embrace their sacrifices with enthusiasm. Then, let her show you how to make your home a place where Holy Week and Easter are duly treated as the highest, holiest days of all the year.

She'll show you why Church tradition accords special meaning to certain foods, colors, and symbols, and how these add to the incarnational character of Catholic spirituality allowing children to experience the Faith through sight, smell, touch, and taste.

Holy Week by Dr. Brant Pitre

Dr. Brant Pitre takes listeners on a Scriptural walk from Palm Sunday to Holy Saturday. Learn about Jesus's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, why he cursed a fig tree, the importance of the "blood and water" that flowed out from Christ's side, and more.

What if I'm unable to go to Confession?

If your desire to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation is in tension with your need to stay home to protect yourself or others, the following is a very important insight into the Sacrament of Reconciliation

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church

'Among the penitent's acts contrition occupies first place. Contrition is "sorrow of the soul and detestation for the sin committed, together with the resolution not to sin again." (#1451)

When it arises from a love by which God is loved above all else, contrition is called perfect" (contrition of charity). Such contrition remits venial sins; it also obtains forgiveness of mortal sins if it includes the firm resolution to have recourse to sacramental confession as soon as possible" (#1452)

Pope Francis referenced this section of the Catechism in his homily on March 20, 2020, as reported by Cindy Wooden on CruxNow.com:

"But many people today would tell me, 'Father, where can I find a priest, a confessor, because I can't leave the house? And I want to make peace with the Lord, I want him to embrace me, I want the Father's embrace.'"

The pope said his response would be, "Do what the Catechism (of the Catholic Church) says. It is very clear: If you cannot find a priest to confess to, speak directly with God, your father, and tell him the truth. Say, 'Lord, I did this, this, this. Forgive me,' and ask for pardon with all your heart."

Make an act of contrition, the pope said, and promise God, "'I will go to confession afterward, but forgive me now.' And immediately you will return to a state of grace with God."

An Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.

In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.

I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.

Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us.

In his name, my God, have mercy.

Amen.

Prayer to St. Andrew

O glorious St. Andrew, you were the first to recognize and follow the Lamb of God. With your friend, St. John, you remained with Jesus for that first day, for your entire life, and now throughout eternity. As you led your brother, St. Peter, to Christ and many others after him, draw us also to Him. Teach us to lead others to Christ solely out of love for Him and dedication in His service. Help us to learn the lesson of the Cross and to carry our daily crosses without complaint so that they may carry us to Jesus. Amen.

A Spiritual Communion Prayer

From Pope Francis on Instagram 3/23/2020

I invite all of you participating in Mass on television to create spiritual communion: At your feet, O my Jesus, I prostrate myself and offer You the repentance of my contrite heart as it plunges itself in its own nothingness and in Your holy presence. I adore You in the Sacrament of Your love. I desire to receive You in the poor dwelling that my heart offers You. As I await the happiness of sacramental communion, I want to possess You in spirit. Come to me, O my Jesus, that I may come to You. May Your love inflame my whole being, for life and for death.

I believe in You. I hope in You. I love You. So shall it be.
~Amen
