Dear Parishioners of Immaculate Conception and St Joseph!

This last week we celebrated a relatively unknown but important saint, St Paulinus of Nola. Through his wealthy family he owned much property in France, Italy and Spain. He married, but sadly his only son died a week after childbirth. This marked a great turning point in his life. He and his wife from then on began to live as monastics. They gave away thousands and thousands of acres of land. St Paulinus was ordained a priest, then later a bishop, and lived a holy life in service of the poor.

Annually on June 22nd, crowds of people from the Italian city of Nola fill the square in front of the church and honor this 4th century saint in the town where he served as Bishop. A giant ornamental wooden boat is carried through the crowd and blessed. The boat harkens back to a legendary story of the saint. Barbarian tribes invaded Italy and captured some of the poor. St Paulinus offered to be taken captive in exchange for the return of a widow's son. This action of selfless love so impressed the leader of the Barbarian tribe that this leader chose to grant St Paulinus and the people their freedom. St Paulinus then returned to Italy and was warmly welcomed by the people of Nola.

In the Book of Genesis, we see the story of Lot making the choice of the Jordan plain for his possession. He saw how well-watered the land was and rejoiced in taking ownership of it. Lot felt that he and his family would be blessed for years to come. Yet we know that the land he chose was Sodom and Gomorrah. A few short years later he and his family would be driven from the city. The city was overcome by vice, which included unnatural sexual acts such as homosexuality. The city was destroyed, his wife was turned into a pillar of salt, and his two daughters did an unspeakable evil. Lot imagined that he would be prosperous in the Jordan plain. Instead, he was ruined.

St Paulinus of Nola in contrast was given acres and acres of land. His land stretched across three countries. Yet he chose to give it up to live as a monk and serve as a bishop. St Paulinus invested in what was truly worthy, he invested his life in the Gospel. May we do the same. "Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil." (Matt 6:34) "The gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction, and those who enter through it are many. How narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life. And those who find it are few." (Matt 7:12-14)

Please do not hesitate to call if you need help. You are always in my prayers. Trust always in Jesus. St Joseph, Patron Saint of the Universal Church – Pray for Us
