Immaculate Conception Annual Roast Beef Dinner

Some of the ladies from Immaculate Conception met to discuss the annual roast beef dinner, and how to hold it safely this year. They came to the decision that a drive up dinner would be best this time. It was decided the dinner will be held Wednesday, August 11th from 4 to 6 pm.

The cost of beef has doubled since the last dinner. We are asking all families of Immaculate Conception to please make a donation of $20 instead of signing up to bring certain items for the dinner. Then they will take the donated funds to purchase the things needed for the drive up dinner. They are asking the ladies to make pies or a refrigerated dessert. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board in the entryway.

They also need people to work! People will be needed to fun the food from the basement to the cars, and to help assemble the meals. We appreciate your donation and participation!

A church just south of Rome called Domine Quo Vadis retains the location where Christ allegedly appeared to St Peter following the persecutions of Nero. Upon seeing the Lord, St Peter asked, “Domine, Quo Vadis?” (Lord, where are you going?) to which Jesus replied, “I am going to Rome to be crucified again.” Spurred on by this encounter St Peter returned to Rome where he became a martyr.

The church of San Pietro in Vincoli maintains a tradition that St Peter was condemned and imprisoned near this site. Within the confessio of this church are the chains used to bind St Peter. A tradition holds that these chains are a result of the chains from St Peter’s imprisonment in Jerusalem coming into contact with the chains from St Peter’s imprisonment in Rome. Miraculously these two chains were fused into the one inseparable chain that is now found in the confessio.

Another church near the catacombs called San Sebastiano Fuori Le Mura main-tains another ancient tradition connecting St Peter and St Paul. An ancient work called the Depositio Martyrum shows that in the year 258 pilgrims came to San Sebastiano Fuori Le Mura on June 29th, the Feast Day of Saints Peter and Paul, to honor these two great saints.

The church of Santa Pudenziana marks the spot where it is believed that St Peter lodged while he was in Rome. The house in which he stayed was owned and pro-vided for by St Pudens, a Roman Senator. Since early Christians did not have public places for worship it is also presumed that St Peter celebrated Mass here.

The remains of St Paul are buried within the Basilica of St Paul Outside the Walls. Above his tomb are the chains that were used to imprison him prior to his mar-tyrdom. His body was transferred here following his martyrdom by decapitation. A church located in the southern part of Rome called San Paolo alle Tre Fontane, is believed to mark the spot of St Paul’s martyrdom. Another church on this property, Santa Maria Scala Coeli, is believed to mark the spot of St Paul’s impris-onment prior to his martyrdom. Numerous other churches in Rome also mark other locations where he is believed to have been held in prison. One must re-member that St Paul's entire time in Rome was passed under arrest. The Acts of the Apostles detail how he was imprisoned in Jerusalem and then sent to Rome to be put on trial before Caesar. Two of these churches marking his imprisonment are San Paolo alla Regola and Santa Maria in Via Lata.

It is impressive to step back into history and to see the great sufferings and sacri-fices made by our ancestors in the faith. We too are asked to sacrifice for our faith so that future generations will likewise know Christ. St Peter and St Paul - Pray for us!

Fr. Daniel L. Thelen
