"Born Again Catholic" Presents: IN HONOR OF THE FEAST OF THE HOLY ROSARY

CANDLELIGHT PROCESSION

As you may know "Born Again Catholic" is my latest OSM program that will help us rediscover what "makes" us Catholic by Creed, Practice and Devotion. Being catholic means that we gather as church to be Catechized, to Worship, to pray and then ultimately serve in the name of Christ! This program will focus on different aspects of these key elements to foster once again a pride and family identity with the Catholic Faith.

The Holy Rosary is a staple devotion in the church that was taught to us as children, practiced as Adults and revered by the Saints. The Holy Rosary speaks volumes to the saying: "To Jesus through Mary" for the rosary includes the Hail Mary coupled with the meditation on the mysteries of our Faith. To say we pray and meditate with and through the eyes of Mary on the life of her son would be perfect explanation of why the prayer is so powerful. Those who are taught the mysteries of the Rosary and meditate on them will have a profound understanding of the life of Christ and the promise of our salvation without ever reading a theological book!

To highlight the power of this prayer is to gather as a Faith community to pray the rosary and to be a witness to the whole town praying in procession in the streets of Irwin! This is the intention of our gathering on the Feast of the Holy Rosary:

> To witness our love of Mary our Mother and the Divine life of her son! This is what it means to be a Catholic witness and a proud member of living Faith.

WHY A CANDLELIGHT PROCESSION?

Some forty years ago while visiting Lourdes, the place where Mary pronounced to St. Bernadette that she was the "Immaculate Conception", I discovered that they were going to have a rosary procession by candlelight from the grotto to the shrine church. I was excited to be just a participant when I was asked, I guess because of my height, to lead the procession by carrying the statue of our Lady! This experience touched me so deeply that I remember desiring to duplicate this event when I became a priest. So this year, after desiring to do so for so long, we will finally have a procession at night with candles to show our devotion and love of Mary and her Son!!!

WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE PROCESSION TAKE PLACE?

The procession will take place on Thursday, October 7th 2021

7:00 PM
Immaculate Conception Church

HOW WILL THE PROCESSION TAKE PLACE OUTISIDE?

The procession will begin on the alley side of the church. With lit candles we will walk up behind the church through the alley, down along the church on Oak street and the finish on second street in front of the Eagles facing the statue of our Lady where we will recite the Rosary. We are seeking permission to block off Second Street during the procession so we can stand on the road and pray together!

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

"REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY, TO KEEP IT HOLY"

(Today's installment on the Commandments is the third of a ten part series)

I can remember vaguely when Sunday was respected as a day of rest. Not only did individual households mandate it but also by law. The "Blue Laws", as they were affectionately named, prohibited all businesses except drug stores and hospitals from being opened on Sundays. The world seemed to quiet down and people were not distracted by the hustle and bustle of life. It was a time to honor God and spend time with the family… a true day of rest. But, that was then and this is now! Sunday is the day to catch up on what was left undone during the week. Making it more hectic and busy than any other day.

So what are we to do?

As a church family living in Y2K, we represent a counter culture that still has an obligation to honoring God's command: "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it Holy". Working against all these distractions, we must re-evaluate the meaning and the purpose of keeping the Sabbath Holy. Jesus said that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. What did he mean by this? Simply, we need a day of rest! We need time to call to mind why we are here and where we are going. We need to focus on our baptismal call to live and to serve each day in the name of the Lord. We must pause, catch our breath, and brace ourselves for the onslaught of the week to come.

THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK

In Saint Luke's Resurrection Narratives, the gospel story that we hear at the beginning of the Easter Season, begins with the words: "On the first day of the week". The first day of the week is marked for Christians as the day of the Resurrection. This is the very gift that we live to share in with Christ. Unlike the Old Testament where the Sabbath, the seventh day, marked the day our Creator rested and reflected on what He had made, it has become a day that marks the beginning of a life that we have yet to live. Keeping Sunday Holy, the day of the Divine Son, Jesus, if you will, gives a new approach to holiness. Instead of keeping the day Holy, it is the day we are called to Holiness.

KEEPING SUNDAY FOR Holiness

As Jesus has fulfilled the Law of the Old Testament, He has given it new meaning. Instead of being concerned with whether we cut grass, shop, or do any other unnecessary work on Sunday, we should be concerned if we have kept it for Holiness' sake.

How do we do this?

1. By participating in the celebration of the Eucharist

Participating is the operative word! Fulfilling an obligation is done by physically being present. Participating means we enter into the celebration and mystery of our life in Christ.

2. By making Sunday the first day of the week instead of the last day of the week.

This is essential in keeping Sunday for Holiness. We must be renewed, as a community of believers so that we can be armed with the Word of God, recommitted in the profession of our Faith, nourished and transformed by the reception of Christ's Body and Blood. So, as we approach the days ahead, we can, with great zeal, go forth to love and serve in His name.

3. By Preparing and reflecting.

It is most important to prepare in anticipation of the celebration.

- The Sunday readings are posted in the weekly bulletin for you to reflect on as a family in the week ahead. These readings could be used at meal times throughout the week.
- By arriving 10 to 15 minutes before Mass, you will have the chance to read over the Sunday Scriptures again, in the missalette, and be prepared to receive His word.
- If you failed to remain in the state of grace, it is important to receive the sacrament of reconciliation, so that you can worthily par take in the Eucharist.

After Mass it is important to reflect on what was said and who we have received, so that we can live out the final words of the Mass: "Go forth to love and serve the Lord".

If we do these things, we have kept the Sabbath; more so, we have made it Holy. So what about the rest of the day? If need be, cut the grass, mend a fence, buy a new outfit, and do it in joyful hope awaiting the coming of the Kingdom!

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG

Text: LM with additions; St. Francis of Assisi, 1182–1226; Laudato sia Dio mio Signore; tr. by William H. Draper, 1855–1933, alt. Music: Auserlesene Catholische Geistliche Kirchengesänge, Cologne, 1623.

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us, . For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 WIS 2: 12, 17-20

The wicked say:
Let us beset the just one,
because he is obnoxious to us;
he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training.
Let us see whether his words be true;
let us find out what will happen to him.
For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes.
With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience.
Let us condemn him to a shameful death;
for according to his own words, God will take care of him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation, of whom should I be afraid, of whom should I be afraid?

READING 2 JAS 3: 16-4:3

Beloved:
Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist,
there is disorder and every foul practice.
But the wisdom from above is first of all pure,
then peaceable, gentle, compliant,
full of mercy and good fruits,
without inconstancy or insincerity.
And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace
for those who cultivate peace.
Where do the wars
and where do the conflicts among you come from?
Is it not from your passions that make war within your members?
You covet but do not possess.
You kill and envy but you cannot obtain;
you fight and wage war.
You do not possess because you do not ask.
You ask but do not receive,
because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

GOSPEL Mk 9: 30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee,
but he did not wish anyone to know about it.
He was teaching his disciples and telling them,
"The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise."
But they did not understand the saying,
and they were afraid to question him.
They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house,
he began to ask them,
"What were you arguing about on the way?"
But they remained silent.
They had been discussing among themselves on the way
who was the greatest.
Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them,
"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."
Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst,
and putting his arms around it, he said to them,
"Whoever receives one child such as this in my name,
receives me;
and whoever receives me,
receives not me but the One who sent me."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Hymn

1. I am the Bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father beckons.

Refrain: And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever,
you shall live for ever.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man
and drink of his blood,
and drink of his blood,
you shall not have life within you.

4. I am the Resurrection,
I am the life.
If you believe in me,
even though you die,
you shall live for ever.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ,
the Son of God,
Who has come into the world.

Is the Mass biblical? Why do Catholics do what they do at Mass? In 10 beautifully produced lessons, Parousia: The Bible and the Mass will answer these questions and more!

In the latest video Bible study from the St. Paul Center, discover why the liturgy is a major theme that runs through the entire Bible, from Genesis to the Book of Revelation.

We'll see how the New Testament is concealed in the Old, the Old is revealed in the New, and why both point directly to the Mass, the sign of the New Covenant.

Join host Dr. Scott Hahn in this video series, to uncover how and why all of God's action, in creation and redemption, is ordered to the Mass.
