Pastoral Message

How do you pray?

These past Sundays we have been reflecting about faith. In the early Christian communities, they focus their attention on those gospel passages where Jesus thought about faith and prayer. Consequently, prayer became a fundamental part in their daily lives as Christian people. For this Sunday we have one of the examples about prayer and how we can pray to God.

Sunday Gospel reading is the account of the Pharisee and the tax collector who both go up to the Temple to pray. The difference in their prayer is striking. Reread this passage and note the differences not only in their words but in their attitudes. The prayer of the tax collector is every believer's prayer: "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." It is an act of faith because only God knows how best to deal with sinners. It is an act of honesty since we know what is in our hearts. And it is an act of humility since it recognizes that it is God, and not ourselves, who can make us whole again. It is the prayer that lead us to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Perhaps this would be a good time to celebrate that sacrament and know again the wonderful healing of God's love for us. Let us let prayer lead us to be reconciled with God, with ourselves and one another.

In Christ ,

Fr. Adalberto Sanchez

Mensaje Pastoral

¿Cómo oramos?

Estos domingos pasados hemos estado reflexionando acerca de la fe. En las primeras comunidades cristianas centraron su atención en los pasajes evangélicos donde Jesús enseñaba acerca de la fe y la oración. Como consecuencia, la oración vino a ser parte fundamental en la vida diaria de los primeros cristianos. Este domingo tenemos un ejemplo acerca de la oración y cómo orar a Dios.

La lectura del domingo es sobre el relato del Fariseo y el Publicano que suben al Templo a orar. La diferencia en su manera de orar es tremenda. Hay que releer este pasaje y ver las diferencias no sólo en las palabras sino en sus actitudes. La oración del Publicano es una oración verdadera y creíble: "Dios mío, apiádate de mí, que soy un pecador". Esto es un acto de fe porque sólo Dios sabe cómo lidiar con los pecadores. También esto es un acto de honestidad desde el momento que sabemos que hay en nuestros corazones. Y también un acto de humildad desde el momento que reconocemos que sólo Dios, no nosotros, quien nos puede volver a recrear. Es la oración que nos lleva al Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Quizá esto podría ser un buen tiempo para acercarnos a este sacramento y experimentar la maravillosa sanación del amor de Dios por nosotros. Dejemos entonces que la oración nos lleve a reconciliarnos con Dios, con nosotros mismos y los unos a los otros.

En Cristo,

Fr. Adalberto Sanchez

"An unexpected pregnancy can be a difficult and frightening time, and it's important that your friend knows you are thinking of her and supporting her... Your support might be the only support she receives. Even if we never know how, the smallest things we do can change someone's life. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?"

"Un embarazo inesperado puede ser una época difícil y aterradora, y es importante que tu amiga sepa que piensas en ella y la apoyas ... Tu apoyo puede ser el único que reciba. Incluso aunque nunca sepamos cómo, las cosas más pequeñas que podamos hacer pueden cambiarle la vida a alguien. Puedes marcar la diferencia en su vida ¿Lo harás?"
