Scripture Reflection

Fear of the other is pervasive today, but it's not new. The early Christians confronted it in preaching the Gospel and often paid a heavy price for their message.

As hard as it may be to accept, God's love is not limited to us and those with whom we feel comfortable.

We, too, are called to reach out beyond borders and barriers of our own making. Why is this so hard for us to grasp, even now?

ST. GABRIEL / ST. CLEMENT MINISTERS RETREAT AND WORKSHOP

JUNE 8, 2019, 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

ALL MINISTERS:

- USHERS
- GREETERS
- EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST
- LECTORS
- CHOIR MEMBERS
- CANTORS
- ALTAR SERVERS
- SACRISTANS

Our service to God is a blessing and a privilege. We are all called to do our best for the Lord. It is important that we take some time to reflect on the Spiritual development necessary to function as God's Disciples.

Jesus often took time to teach and review the responsibilities of the Apostles and in the course of His teaching, He encouraged them to take time to pray and He shared His prayers with them. The prayers we all remember are the Our Father, which calls us to build God's Kingdom and do His Will, and His prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Our day will include The Spirituality of Ministry touching on the difference between volunteering for a job and offering one's services as a minister to serve the Lord and the community. Prayer, meditation, preparation, the scriptural foundation for ministry as a sacrifice and not a convenience, and commitment will be our focus.

This is so important that I am asking you to understand that this is a requirement and to make every effort to attend.

Please RSVP to me (tphillips@archbalt.org) by May 27th. I look forward to sharing this experience with you and I thank you for your time and dedication to your ministry in service to God through the community of St. Gabriel.

Fr. Tom
