Gospel Meditation

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

SACRISTANS NEEDED

Have you ever considered helping out here at Church and wondered how? We would really like to expand our team of Sacristans at our weekend Masses. We are so grateful for those who have served in this role and would love to expand the group. It only takes about 15 minutes before Mass to set up and about 5 minutes after Mass to clean up.

Our present team is one person at each Mass, but we would love to add others so that we could alternate weeks, etc. Great training is provided! (It's not difficult at all!) Invite a friend to join you, or even your family. If interested, please contact Sister Kathleen at kflannery@churchofthegesu.org.

FAITH FORMATION: A TIME OF TRANSITION

Mary von Carlowitz, Co-Director of Faith Formation, has accepted a new position at the Diocese of Cleveland as the Director of the Office for Human Life.

We wish her well in her new role and assure her of our gratitude for all she has done here at Gesu with our Parish School of Religion, Catechesis for Adaptive Needs, Vacation Bible School and Confirmation preparation.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING: LIVING OUT OUR FAITH

Featured Article

April ushers in welcome springtime weather and a sense of gratitude for the seasonal changes in this part of the country. April is also when we celebrate Earth Day, and at the Church of the Gesu it is when we emphasize issues related to the care of God's creation. The National Catholic Reporter features a column called Earthbeat which shares stories of climate crisis, faith and action. The following article from Earthbeat addresses the consequences of polluting our oceans. Sea life isn't the only thing at risk from pollution, but our own health too. Read more by accessing the following link: <https://bit.ly/31fA4q3>.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY FOR TODAY

The Gesu Year of Mercy focus for April is Care for Creation. The Jesuits in Britain offer an online audio Easter retreat that encourages participants to walk with the risen Christ just as Jesus' disciples did after he rose from the dead. The retreat invites us to ponder how Jesus is present to us, others, and all of creation through scripture, reflections and music. Nourish your soul during the 50 day Easter season by accessing the following retreat link: www.pathwaystogod.org/resources/new-creation-retreat.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Rocky Railway has been "derailed" this summer. Plan on joining us in summer of 2022 for sure!

IGNATIAN THREADS

In this Easter season, let us ask the Lord to strengthen our faith. Let the miracle of the resurrection be so real to us that the living Jesus truly becomes the center of our lives. The Resurrection reveals how God is always bringing life from death, hope from despair, love from hate, and light from darkness. We should celebrate the "risings" in our lives: reconciled or new friendships, unexpected opportunities, renewed commitments, and meaning that comes from disappointment and loss. As we reflect on the risen Christ, we realize solace and joy in the total redemption of ourselves. With God's grace we are made whole, to continue our journey in hope and promise. In today's Gospel, John writes that the Good Shepherd knows his sheep and lays down his life for them. Reflect on this: how do we show by our lives that we belong to God and how can we lead others to God?

CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Without a good shepherd to lead them, sheep would get lost. Without a good shepherd to protect them, sheep would get hurt. A good shepherd would even die, just to keep his sheep safe. Jesus is your good shepherd, and you are his precious little lamb. When you get lost, Jesus comes to find you. When you are in danger, Jesus comes to comfort you. Listen to the voice of Jesus. Spend time reading the Bible every day. He wants to lead you to life with God. He wants to protect you from sin. Jesus gave up his life just to save you. Jesus is your good shepherd.

PUZZLE

Help this lamb find his way into the sheep pen with Jesus.

PRAYER

God, help me to always follow Jesus, my good shepherd

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself as a little lamb and Jesus as your good shepherd.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Learn as much as you can about Jesus, so you can follow him. Read a Bible story with your family every night before bed.

WAYS YOU CAN PUT YOUR STIMULUS CHECK TO GOOD USE

Did you recently receive a stimulus check that you might not need? Please consider donating it to one of our many outreach programs. Gesu works with various nonprofit organizations in the Cleveland community and beyond. Our partnerships help us support organizations such as the Westside Catholic Center, Edwin's, Womankind, and Zelig's Home. Our goal is to provide the agencies with both financial and in-kind donations throughout the year. Many of these organizations are struggling to provide the basic necessities so desperately needed during the Pandemic. You are welcome to make a donation to Gesu, and the Development office will provide you with a tax deductible receipt. We are grateful for your thoughtful support.

FAIR TRADE FESTIVAL

Due to the pandemic, Gesu will not host a Fair Trade Festival in McAuley Hall this spring. However, we encourage parishioners to shop online or in store at the vendors listed below who have participated in Gesu's Fair Trade Festivals in the past. For more information, you can visit the flyer located under the Outreach tab on our website: churchofthegesu.org. You are also invited to shop at the Fair Trade Expo at John Carroll University on October 23, 2021 from 9:30 am - 3:30 pm. Gesu's generosity will help provide needed care for our nation's Veterans.

GESU STUDENT OUTREACH VIDEOS

Gesu Catholic School students were challenged to produce media regarding outreach related social issues. They did a wonderful job. You can view their videos under the Outreach tab on our website: churchofthegesu.org. We will continue to post their awesome work here as it becomes available.

VACCINE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED AND VACCINE ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE

The Cleveland Vaccine Volunteer Network is working to increase equitable access to Covid-19 vaccines in our region. Although vaccine availability in Cleveland is currently high, they have identified a growing need to support those navigating the appointment process.

Their two main functions are:

1. Recruit and match volunteers with community members who request help navigating the vaccine process. To sign up, visit <https://bit.ly/3t9iOPT>.
2. Create a mechanism for community members (OR care workers/community organizers) to request assistance with the vaccine process. For a request form, visit <https://bit.ly/322zIDI>.

HANDMADE OLIVEWOOD GOODS FROM THE HOLY LAND

Before and after all April 24/25 Masses, Land of Peace will be selling religious carvings from the Holy Land that are handmade by carvers and artisans in the Bethlehem area from materials such as olive wood or mother of pearl. April 15, 2021

Dear Gesu Parishioners,

We wanted to take a moment to share our sincere gratitude with the Gesu Community for Fr. Kiser's leadership over the last four and a half years as our pastor. Fr. Kiser has graced our community with his faithfulness, compassion, leadership and sense of humor. During his time, our community has grown in many ways, especially during the last year. When he joined us in the Fall of 2016, he was eager to meet parishioners and hosted several listening sessions to learn about Gesu Parish and set goals for the future.

This effort was successful and has provided much vibrancy to our community. His introduction of One Book, One Parish encouraged everyone not only to read a good book, but to learn more about mortality, saints and the Corporal Works of Mercy. He worked closely with current Principal Lucy Iemmolo to set a plan to increase teachers' compensation and has provided support to make sure the school is exceeding academic standards and maintaining a strong enrollment. Over the past 18 months, Fr. Kiser has worked closely with the Parish Pastoral Council on Gesu's strategic plan. Together, the Pastoral Council launched goals for the parish to achieve by 2025 – nearing Gesu's Centennial anniversary in 2026. Most recently, Fr. Kiser established a successful fundraising program that is providing the financial resources to address plant and capital needs on our campus and is also growing our endowment. These are just a few highlights of his time with us, in addition to visiting the sick, celebrating numerous weddings, First Communions and baptisms, and consoling grieving families at funerals. On top of that, with the help of the parish staff, he has steered the ship through the pandemic!

Fr. Kiser has been a blessing to our community in many ways, and we are forever grateful for the time that he has spent with us. As we bid him farewell and the best of luck in his new role as Provincial of the Midwest Province of Jesuits, please keep him in your prayers.

Fr. Kiser will celebrate Mass with us on May 23 (Pentecost Sunday) at 11:30 am and a COVID friendly Open House will follow the liturgy, either outside or in the Family Center. He will be available to share his goodbyes with parishioners, so if you like, please stop by to greet him. Also, if you are interested in making a gift in Fr. Kiser's honor, he has asked that you please direct it to the Gesu Endowment for financial assistance for Gesu School.

April's Corporal Work of Mercy: Care of Creation

Ignatian Solidarity Network's 21-Day Catholic Enviro Justice Challenge: April 23-May 16

Walk with other Catholics as we learn, pray, and take action for environmental justice this Earth Day.

In his encyclical Laudato Si', Pope Francis invites all people to act on behalf of creation. This call to action is grounded in the principle of integral ecology – the idea that environmental, social, political and economic systems are interwoven – and sustained by a sense of wonder before the interconnected nature of all life.

Join the Ignatian Solidarity Network as we explore these connections through daily emails challenging us to:

- enter into the complex work of understanding the connections between environmental injustices that disproportionately impact Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC), as well as low income communities;
- listen to and learn from the voices of environmental justice leaders from frontline communities;
- better understand the connections between current and historical environmental injustices;
- respond to the call to work towards a lived vision of a world in which all of God's creation can flourish.

Join us in taking the challenge: igsol.net/interconnected

What does Gesu Parish do?

Gesu is a Member Institution of the Ignatian Solidarity Network (ISN), a national social justice education and advocacy organization. ISN mobilizes a network which:

- Provides resources to Jesuit ministries engaging in social justice education and advocacy.
- Engages thousands of individuals affiliated with the Ignatian family to be lifelong contemplative advocates for the common good.
- Partners with faith-based and civic organizations committed to justice, peace and care for our common home.
- Promotes solidarity with the poor – especially in the Americas – among Jesuit ministries.

Gesu is part of InterReligious Task Force on Central America's Rapid Response Network (IRTF's RRN) and we sponsor their letter writing campaigns, Social Justice Teach-Ins and Kemerovo Commemoration of the Martyrs. IRTF is a Cleveland-based interfaith group that promotes peace, human rights, economic justice, and organizes aid to Central America and Colombia.

What can you do?

- Due to the pandemic, Gesu will not host a Fair Trade Festival in McAuley Hall this spring. We encourage parishioners to shop online or in store at the vendors listed on page 8. Also, mark your calendars and shop at the October 23, 2021 Fair Trade Expo at John Carroll University.
- Attend Gesu's Care for our Common Home Conversation via Zoom on Wednesday, April 21, 2021. See page 8 for more information and to find out how to register.
- Carry a bag with you and collect trash when you're out for a walk.
- Calculate your carbon footprint at www3.epa.gov/carbon-footprint-calculator/ and take action to reduce it.
