Gospel Meditation

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY FOR TODAY

Featured Article

"Our world faces new challenges. Covid-19 alone has shattered our normal ways of life. We need faith to be able to see anew." What does St. Ignatius, founder of the Society of Jesus, the Catholic religious order of priests and brothers who staff and serve the Church of the Gesu and Gesu School have to say about our own reality 500 years later?

Read the following article to learn more as we continue to celebrate the Ignatian Year, which began on May 20 and continues until July 31, 2022: <https://www.americamagazine.org/faith/2021/04/22/st-ignatius-conversion-500-years-later-240490>.

ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

July 31st

GESU BIBLE STUDIES 2021-2022

Fr. Michael Vincent, SJ plans to continue his Bible Study on the Psalms that was discontinued by the pandemic in March 2020. Sessions will begin at Psalm 75 using the Second Volume of Dianne Bergant's

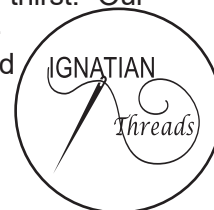

New Collegeville Bible Commentary on Psalms 73 - 150, and will take place on Wednesday mornings from 9:15-11:00 am, about twice a month in the Pastoral Center. A full schedule will be distributed on the first day, September 8, 2021. All are welcome, even if you did not attend the first half in 2019-2020. For more information or to express your interest, contact Fr. Vincent at mvincentsj@churchofthegesu.org.

The Saturday Bible group will begin a study of the Biblical Novellas: Tobit, Judith, Esther, 1 & 2 Maccabees - stories of faithful men and women after the Babylonian exile. Saturday, sessions are scheduled weekly from 12:00-2:00 pm, September 11 - December 18. Please bring your own Bible. A Liguori Press supplement will be available in the parish office. Requested donation is $13. For more information or to express your interest, contact Christie Okocha at ndaoko@msn.com.

Watch for information on Gesu's Women's Bible Study.

IGNATIAN THREADS

Today we celebrate the "cannonball moment" on the Feast of St. Ignatius, as Jesuits worldwide are beginning a special Ignatian year. Surely Ignatius would have connected readily with today's Gospel from John. Jesus says to the crowd: "My Father gives you the true bread from heaven...I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." Note the very top panel in our Ignatius windows. Here, Ignatius is depicted with serious injury at Plampona, the actual "cannonball moment" which led to his life-changing conversion which inspires us today. Then, notice a lower right-side panel in which Ignatius is presiding at Mass, gazing at the cup and host. Let us reflect with Ignatius on what it means for us to never "hunger" or "thirst." Our loving God is always with us, accessible in the Eucharist...our true bread from heaven, ready to accompany us through our own "cannonball moment."

COME AND SEE!

Gesu Parish seeks to be a church that welcomes everyone, children and adults alike, and we need your help in getting the word out! Perhaps you or someone you know is considering joining us in the Catholic faith. We, as a parish community, would be happy to accompany you on such a path of exploration and discernment. If you wish to know more, please contact Marcia Leous, Director of Faith Formation for Adults, at mleous@churchofthegesu.org, or anyone on the parish staff at (216) 932-0617.

IGNATIUS PRAYER & FAITH SHARING

The next virtual Zoom gathering of Ignatian Prayer & Faith Sharing will be Thursday, August 12, 2021 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm. Participants can use a computer, tablet/iPad, or phone for this experience of praying in the Ignatian way as we share reflections on the coming Sunday's Gospel and other readings. If you are interested in joining this session, please email Hilda at hwalter@churchofthegesu.org. We would love to "see" you there!

VISIT THE IGNATIUS LIBRARY!

Are you acquainted with our Ignatius Library, located on the first floor of the Pastoral Center (parish office)? You will find inspirational and informative material on The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, Jesuit history, publications by numerous Jesuit writers on all aspects of Ignatian spirituality, lives of the saints, Jesus, Scripture commentary - Old and New Testament, noteworthy biographies, as well as a selection of DVDs. Stop in and borrow what appeals to you! Take a look at the catalog on our website, under Faith Formation.

INVITATION TO NEW CATECHISTS

Just what is a "Catechist?"

The word catechist comes from the Greek word "to echo." As catechists, we echo the teachings of the Church. We also echo our own personal relationship with Jesus Christ through our words and deeds.

Is God calling YOU in a specific way?

As we look to a new year here at Church of the Gesu, especially for those children (kindergarten through high school!) and families attending our neighboring schools, we are inviting you to listen, to be attentive, to hear God's call as a catechist! Serving as a catechist is more than simple volunteerism. It is more than filling a slot. It is a vocation: a call from God to serve his Church!

We are looking for those who have:

Qualities

- A desire to grow in and share the Catholic faith
- An awareness of God's grace and the desire to respond to that grace
- A commitment to the Church's liturgical and sacramental life and moral teachings
- A strength of character built on patience, responsibility, confidence and creativity
- A generosity of spirit, respect for diversity, and a habit of hospitality and inclusion

Knowledge and Skills

- A basic understanding of Catholic teaching, Scripture and Catholic Tradition
- Honest and caring relationships with the age group being served
- Developing effective teaching techniques and strategies

Serving as a catechist is an opportunity to grow in faith for yourself, as well as for the young people in one's care. And it does not happen always alone! Being a catechist is rooted in a community of other persons and families who desire the same thing! And in that community, we also find people who can help us grow and discover the knowledge and skills that are central to our "passing on" the Faith to our young ones!

If you find yourself intrigued, or curious, or would like more information, please contact Sister Kathleen at the parish office or by email at kflannery@churchofthegesu.org.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Just one day earlier, Jesus multiplied five loaves of bread and two fish to feed over five thousand people. In today's Gospel, some of those people came looking for Jesus, hoping to get another free lunch. They didn't understand that Jesus wants all people to believe in him. Through faith in Jesus, you can live forever. In heaven you will never be hungry or thirsty again.

WALK AND PRAY FOR LIFE

Please join Our Lady of Peace Respect Life Committee on our upcoming rosary walk. On Saturday, August 28, after the 4:00 pm vigil Mass, please join us as we walk from Our Lady of Peace (12601 Shaker Blvd., just west of Shaker Square) to Preterm (Ohio's largest abortion clinic). We will pray the rosary as we walk. We pray for all unborn children, their mothers, and all babies and moms who have been hurt by abortion. After the walk, we will gather in OLP's Cummins Hall for snacks and refreshments.

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE!

It's been a long time since we could play bridge together, and we are happy to invite you to sign up for the 2021-2022 Gesu Bridge Marathon season! If you haven't played with us before, please consider joining us for some fun at the bridge table! We play regular rubber bridge, and there is a men's group, a women's group and a couples group. We welcome all vaccinated bridge players, and we would like to have even more teams.

No crowded rooms: each month you play one other couple in your home or theirs. Games are played at a time that is convenient for both teams. Sign up with a partner and you will receive a schedule that shows which team you and your partner will play each month. If you are not able to play your game in a particular month, you may play at another time that is convenient for both teams.

Deadline to sign up is August 25. The fee for the season is $15 per person. Make checks payable to "Gesu Women's Guild." Send with the name, address, phone and the email of you and your partner to: Anne Raby, 2419 South Belvoir Blvd., University Heights, OH 44118. Please sign up promptly so we can get the schedules out for September play.

Any questions? Contact Jo Ann at (216) 831-4910, Anne at (216) 382-0326 or anne.raby@gmail.com. For the men's bridge group contact Dave Plottner at (440) 708-1739 or dplot80079@aol.com.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Please contact Lori at lwright@churchofthegesu.org or 216-932-0617.

VIRTUS TRAINING AND FINGER-PRINTING FOR VOLUNTEERS WORKING WITH GESU CHILDREN

Virtus Training

Virtus Training at Gesu will be Tuesday, August 10, from 6:00-9:00 pm in McAuley Hall. Please register online at www.virtus.org. If you attended a Virtus Training session in the past, you do not need to repeat the training.

Fingerprinting for Gesu Volunteers

Background checks are a requirement for VIRTUS certification. Checks can be completed electronically on the VIRTUS website when setting up your personal account.

This training is critical for those who wish to work four or more hours a month, or more than once a month with the children of our parish. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BEGIN COACHING OR OTHER VOLUNTEERING WITH CHILDREN AT GESU UNTIL YOU HAVE COMPLIED WITH THESE DIOCESAN REQUIREMENTS. For more information and links to the required forms please visit the Gesu school website at www.gesu.com. Select the Parents tab at the top of the page then click on Volunteer Requirements.

GESU EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAMS

We are registering now for both our Gesu Early Childhood programs, Happy Together and TOPS (Time Out for Parents).

Happy Together is a parent/child class for children 16 - 30 months old. It takes place on Monday mornings during the school year from 10:00-11:00 am. The children free play, do art projects and easel painting, and have circle time.

TOPS (Time Out for Parents) is a drop off program for two and three year olds. Two-year-old children turning two by 9/30 can attend one morning per week, Tuesday through Friday. Children who turn three by 12/31 have the option to do two mornings per week. There is free play, art, circle time, and gym and playground time.

Both classes take place in our awesome room full of toys in the lower level of Gesu School! The fall session begins in mid-September and concludes the week before Christmas. Pick up forms for both classes in the Gesu parish office. Please contact Karen C. Smith at (440) 667-1326 (leave a voicemail) or bjkcsmith@roadrunner.com with questions.

The position reports to the Development & Communications Director.

Resumes must be received by August 15, 2021.

Director of Faith Formation for Children and Families

Church of the Gesu is looking for a full-time Director of Faith Formation for Children and Families. This position includes coordination of Parish School of Religion, Sacrament Preparation for First Reconciliation and Communion, Catechumenate adapted for Children, Catechesis of Children with Adaptive Needs, and liaison to parish school for catechesis and liturgy. Expectations include recruitment and formation of volunteers, development of programming that meets the needs of today's families, resource for Faith Formation Commission, and engagement with the parish staff.

Youth Minister

Church of the Gesu is looking for a part-time Youth Minister. This position includes forming a comprehensive youth ministry program junior through senior high, recruitment and training of leaders, and coordination of the Confirmation preparation program.
