THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house
they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold,
frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

Gospel Meditation

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

RECONCILIATION

Reconciliation is held each Saturday from 3:00-4:00 pm. To allow for social distancing, it's taking place in the Nativity Room. Please enter via the door inside the church. The room is set for both anonymous and face-to-face confessions. Please wear a mask.

BAPTISMS

To arrange a Baptism, please contact the Parish Office. Baptism instruction is necessary with the first child.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION (RCIA)

The Gesu RCIA process welcomes anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and prepares you to become a member of the Catholic Church. Please inquire at the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE

Please contact one of the Gesu priests at the Parish Office at least six months in advance to arrange the use of the church and register for the marriage preparation program.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

We are unable to hold our usually monthly Anointing Masses at this time. You may make arrangements to receive the Sacrament of the Sick following any weekday or weekend Mass by calling the Parish Office in advance. That way, we will know which date and time you will be here.

ILLNESS & HOSPITAL CALLS

Please notify the Parish Office when a member of your family is hospitalized or ill. Sick calls have been suspended for the time being. Anointing will only be administered when a person is in danger of death.

SHOUT OUT TO OUR CHURCH SANITIZERS!

For the past six months Gesu has been blessed with a new category of helping hands – literally – whom we refer to as our Church Sanitizers. These thirty men, women and students have volunteered to help clean our church after funerals, weddings and baptisms. Gesu has called upon them for service over 50 times!

You can view this schedule for yourself on our website:

churchofthegesu.org/Worship/Liturgical Ministers. Along with Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and (in non-COVID times) Altar Servers, these ministers perform a valuable service. After a funeral, wedding or baptism, they stand ready to sanitize where people sat, to help keep Gesu church safe in these unusual times.

Though we have some "stars" who have come many times, we truly appreciate every Church Sanitizer who has helped, even if only on one occasion. God bless you for your wonderful service in this ministry! If this would interest you, please contact the parish office and we will gladly add you to this list.

A DEEPLY FELT SENSE OF GRATITUDE

We would like to extend a deep sense of gratitude to all those who generously shared their time and talents during this Advent/Christmas season:

Our creative Art/Environment Committee,
Our well-prepared proclaimers of the Word,
Our generous ministers of the Eucharist at Mass and to our homebound parishioners,
Our trusty sacristans,
Our faithful ushers,
Our tireless maintenance folks who gave their all from small details to large,
Our beautiful musicians who graced our liturgies,
Our priests and homilists who shared their gifts so generously with this parish community,
And ... to all of you, who celebrated this holy season with us!
We are so blessed!

Even in this pandemic time, we find the heart of Christmas living among us!

If anyone would like to share their time and/or talents with these ministries, we would love to have you join us in this New Year! What a great New Year's resolution to become more involved in the life of Gesu Parish! If you need any more information, please call Sister Kathleen at (216) 932-0617 or kflannery@churchofthegesu.org.

FROM OUR HOUSE TO YOUR HOUSE

Week of 1/3/21

GATHER: Begin simply by saying "Bless Us, O Lord!" and make the Sign of the Cross.

LISTEN: Use a portion of the reading this week to read aloud.

Our Gospel for today is Matthew 2:1-5, 7-11. When the magi arrived in Jerusalem in search of the newborn king of the Jews, Herod heard of their arrival and became very troubled. He contacted them to let him know about this child that he might welcome him as well - a clever trick. But, following the star that had led them, they went on to find the child Jesus with Mary and Joseph, offering him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and returned to their homes without telling Herod. We call this feast Epiphany which means manifestation - a time when Jesus is revealed to be the long awaited Messiah. Though Jesus was found in the humblest of places, the magi recognized a King who would be the Light of the World.

Pause a little,

SHARE: Use this thought or question for family sharing:

This Christmas season continues for yet another week. Some places in the world call this day another Christmas, or Little Christmas. But there is nothing "little" about it! Jesus is about to have a very big impact on the people of his time and still to this day! The gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh have great significance: gold for a king, frankincense for he is God, and myrrh for one who will suffer and die.

Here is a special home blessing! On the door of your home, using chalk, write: 20 + C + M + B + 21. The + represents the cross, and the letters the legendary names of Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. And 2021 designates the year when we invite Christ to enter our home and be with our family each and every day!

PRAY FOR: After sharing, consider all those you want to remember in prayer today.

Use the activity above to mark your door, and say together: "May your Blessing come upon this house and upon our family. May all who enter see in us a place where love, faith, forgiveness and hope find a home. Amen."

GIVE THANKS: Conclude with: "Bless Us, O Lord, and these your gifts which we are about to receive from your bounty through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Enjoy your meal!

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY FOR TODAY

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas) has been the subject of countless works of art over the centuries. Feast your eyes on a selection of these while listening to a beautiful rendition of Silent Night performed by the Ignatian Schola, a vocal group based in Manhattan. Listen at www.ignatianspirituality.com/a-christmas-hymn/. May you experience the peace and joy of the Christmas season in your hearts and homes!

IGNATIAN THREADS

Happy New Year! St. Ignatius might view this as a valuable opportunity to make some practical spiritual resolutions: incorporate the Examen at a regular time into your daily prayer, set aside some time just for you and God to have conversation, recognize God's presence in your everyday living, find more ways that you can serve others. You might tap into one or more of the convenient online sites and/or apps for daily reflection: Jesuitprayer.org, Loyola Press' 3-Minute Retreat, Pray as You Go app, and others. This writer commits to starting and ending each day with gratitude for many blessings realized. At the end of a very challenging year, we have just celebrated the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, the light of divine love. May this great gift prompt us to recognize God's grace in His unfailing love and constant presence, to strengthen our personal relationship with our Savior and Creator, and to be filled with hope.

WELCOMING THE STRANGER: PRAYER FOR HOSPITALITY

Loving God, your Son Jesus said your Kingdom is like a banquet: a festive gathering for all people of every race and color – a table at which the lonely find company, the rich savor rich foods and the fine wine,

and strangers enjoy warm family ties,
Jesus calls us to build this Kingdom here on earth.
Teach us, Lord, the ways of hospitality.

Give us the spirit of joyful welcome and the sensitivity to help people on the move to feel they belong.

Grant that our tables at home may draw our new neighbors from other lands into a loving community and that the Eucharistic tables in our parishes may prefigure that banquet in heaven where all are one with you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen.

EPIPHANY

Surviving or Thriving: HOPE IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

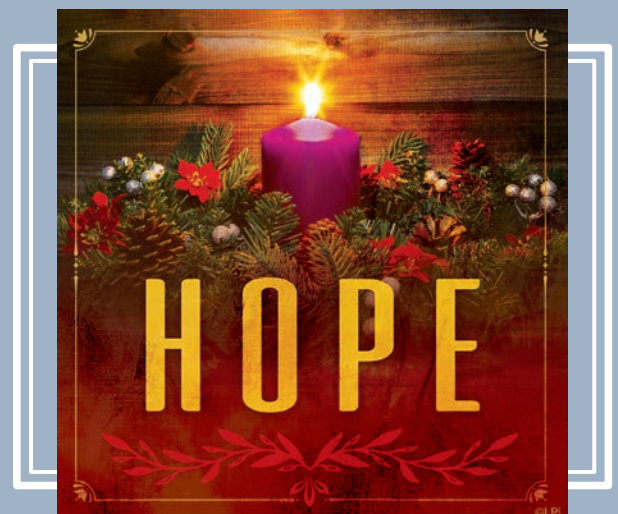

As we celebrate the Christmas season and ring in a New Year, few of us would have anticipated that our lives would continue to be besieged and turned upside down from a potentially deadly virus. Life in the midst of a pandemic has altered virtually every aspect of society. Every aspect of life has been impacted, including our life at home and our day-to-day activities.

In times that are steeped in extraordinary stress, it takes courage, commitment, and creativity to deal with that stress. Everyone is vulnerable in times like these, including parents, children, educators, seniors that live alone, and all those that suffer from despair.

But there are signs of hope, even throughout these darkest of nights, there is no pandemic, there is no crisis that can extinguish the Light. Let us allow the Light of Christ to enter our hearts and let us lend a hand to those who need it most. In this way, God will be born anew in us and among us.

Wherever you may be, as we welcome in 2021, know that you are not alone. Take refuge in the inspiration that the passages in this Surviving or Thriving series invite you into...Welcome, beautiful soul!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jigsaw puzzles are fun. Solve a puzzle with your whole family, and it comes together even faster. God helped the wise men solve a puzzle. They wanted to find the newborn king. Together the wise men read God's promises, did their homework, and followed the star. When all of their answers fit, they found baby Jesus.

The Church of the Gesu has a longstanding relationship with the people of Honduras. The following article mentions this country, among other Central American countries, that have experienced devastation by two recent hurricanes. What might this mean for these people and others seeking refuge elsewhere due to their homes and livelihoods being destroyed, or day-to-day health and safety threatened by persecution, conflict, violence and human rights abuses? What might this mean for our own country in terms of its willingness to help? This is a brief but timely article as our nation prepares for new leadership and direction regarding national policies, including those related to migration and refugee services. It is also timely during this season of Christmas as we hear

Shelter the Homeless and Welcome the Stranger

Welcome the Stranger

To be Christian means that we are obligated to place others at the center of our lives. In doing so, we encounter fear, discomfort and inconvenience. As we put the Corporal Work of Mercy of Welcoming the Stranger into action, we are challenged to move out of our comfort zones and follow the example of Christ.

Entire groups of people, have become forfeit of basic human rights because we don't understand them; we find their beliefs or practices foreign; we feel threatened by imagined dangers; they are different from what we deem "normal." Neighbors in proximity are treated as strangers in our midst; they are rejected and threatened and made to feel unwelcome. We are called to look beyond agendas, whether they are political, social or economic, and instead look at how Jesus calls us to respond to the needs of the stranger.

Children are starving, families are being decimated, societies are collapsing due to war, poverty, violence, hatred and greed. Our brothers and sisters are being driven from their homes and into our arms. Our response cannot be a re-action from fear; it must be an action based on and in faith. We are told to welcome the stranger - no caveats. We are not cautioned to protect ourselves first; God is our fortress. We are not warned away from helping the stranger who belongs to a different religion; God calls all to Himself. We are shown Christ's example of caring for those who are most marginalized and rejected. We are told to welcome the stranger or risk our eternal life. As Christians, we are compelled to take the path of the higher righteousness that Jesus calls us to in Mt 5:20: "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter into the kingdom of heaven."

In today's climate, there is an uncomfortable tendency of making outrageous claims, accusations and promises. There is an on-going narrative that we hear every time we turn to any news source or social media outlet that tries to establish that there are human beings who have NOT been created in the image and likeness of God and are therefore acceptable targets for vitriolic attacks on their religion, beliefs or practices. Has your voice been usurped by the narrative or will you speak out against this claim of justified marginalization, justified rejection and justified hate?

What does Gesu Parish do?

- Collect NEW socks and underwear (and diapers) in the narthex bin for the Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry Men's Shelter, West Side Catholic Center, and Zelig's Home.
- Volunteer with the SVDPS or Ozanam Center at St. Philomena Church. Contact Pat Hawkins or the parish office for more information.
- Items for the Donation Station in the Thompson lot.
- Deliver food donations to the Thea Bowman Center and Salvation Army Rehabilitation Center. Contact Tom Tomsic or the parish office for more information.

What can you do?

- Educate yourself about the plight of the homeless, migrant worker, immigrant, and refugee.
- Watch the Netflix docuseries, Immigration Nation
- Explore the Diocese of Cleveland Catholic Charities Migration & Refugee Services website found at <http://bit.ly/37BLxo6> and look at "How You Can Help" by volunteering, mentoring a refugee family, renting to refugees, hiring refugees, or donating.
- Donate to the West Side Catholic Center to help our area's homeless at www.wsccenter.org/give.
- Volunteer with Habitat for Humanity.

Mercy in the City

January: Read Chapters 11 - 14

Ch.11 - After her interaction with Leroy, Kerry realized that she had failed to see him as a real person. Have you ever had an experience that changed your perspective on the people around you?

Ch. 12 -In this chapter Kerry describes a simple, single act of mercy when a stranger handed her a sturdier bag and bottle of water for her sick friend. Do you think small actions like this matter? If so, why don't more people do things like this?

Ch. 13 - Kerry's open-door policy for houseguests has resulted in both positive and negative experiences for her, with the positive greatly outweighing the negative. Can you describe a time when you opened yourself to the unknown? What happened?

Ch. 14 - What did you think about Kerry's experience with the men in the homeless shelter?

Registration will be considered complete when all required information and documents have been submitted and the registration fee has been paid.

NEW SOCK AND UNDERWEAR DRIVE

Do you have sock and underwear drawers at home? The homeless don't. There are two main reasons socks and underwear are among the most valuable pieces of clothing to people without permanent housing. First, feet work overtime when there's no cozy home (and laundry room) to return to each night. The other reason is that socks and underwear are the most requested and least often donated or, when they are, they cannot be sanitized and put to use.

For our Corporal Works of Mercy, "Shelter the Homeless/Welcome the Stranger" focus during the month of January, we are collecting NEW socks and underwear for the Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry Men's Shelter, West Side Catholic Center, and Zelig's Home. All sizes for boys, girls, women and men are welcome. Diapers are underwear too. Thick, taller (not ankle), warm, non-colored socks are preferred, especially white tube socks, for winter. So please add socks, underwear and/or diapers to your shopping list and drop the packages off in the narthex bin.

BLOOD DRIVE

Gesu will be hosting the American Red Cross for a blood drive on Sunday, January 10, 8:30 am - 2:00 pm in McAuley Hall. They are in critical need of blood donations. Many people will benefit from your donation of this life-saving gift. Thank you.

Because of the pandemic, this will be done by appointment. Donors can sign up by going to: RedCrossBlood.org and entering sponsor code: GESU, or use the following link: <http://rcblood.org/34RKGOb>

All blood is being tested for Covid-19 antibodies. Donors will receive their results through their blood donor app, or through a link emailed to the address they used to register at RedCrossBlood.org, seven days after donation.

The usual Covid protocols will be followed:

- Checking the temperatures of staff and donors before entering a drive.
- Providing hand sanitizer for use before the drive and throughout the donation process.
- Social distancing (3 to 6 feet) between donors including entry, donation and refreshment areas.
- Ensuring face masks or coverings are worn by all staff and donors.
- Routinely disinfecting surfaces, equipment and donor-touched areas.

STAY CONNECTED WITH OUR PARISH APP

Gesu has launched a parish app and it's a way to stay connected with us! This app allows you to be engaged, learn about upcoming events, receive important messages, grow your faith and much more.

To download the app to your smartphone or tablet, simply go to the Apple App store (<https://apple.co/3fLcN5e>) OR Google Play store (<https://bit.ly/32KuH46>). Select WeConnect Parish App and, once open, choose Church of the Gesu. If you have any questions, please reach out to us at communications@churchofthegesu.org.

GESU SCHOOL RAFFLE

The annual Gesu School Raffle mailing has been sent to all parishioners. If you are interested in supporting our Blue Ribbon Catholic School, please return your ticket stubs with a check payable to Gesu Catholic School. Your ticket(s) will be entered into the weekly drawing and will allow you a chance at all $6,500 drawn throughout the year. Thank you for your support!

PARISH DIRECTORY

The 2020-2021 Gesu Directory is now available on our website. Visit churchofthegesu.org and select Gesu at a Glance / Resources / Parish Directory. It's a great resource for learning about all the different parish ministries and organizations. We have a limited number of printed copies. Please call the Parish Office if you'd like one.

RECYCLE YOUR OLD CHRISTMAS LIGHTS!

Gesu Boy Scout Troop 620 will once again collect and recycle nonworking strands of Christmas lights. There will be two containers placed near the white Donation Station in the Thompson Parking Lot. The containers will be there beginning November 25 until January 10.

FAMILIES WITH MEMBERS OVER AGE 23

If someone in your family reaches age 23, our parish data system reclassifies him or her as an "adult" and changes member status to "inactive," meaning former parishioner. In other words, he or she will no longer be a registered parishioner at Gesu. At age 23 a family member needs to register as an individual on a new membership. Please have your adult child come to or call the parish office to complete a registration form.

FAITH DIRECT

So much is different this Christmas season, yet the focus and dedication of our parish ministries remains constant – as people in need throughout our community turn to Gesu Church for warm meals, comfort and shelter during the holidays, we must be there for them...which is why we are reaching out to our parishioners.

Your generous online donations are needed now to help sustain Christmas ministries that reflect the promise of God's love. The upheaval and distress caused by COVID-19 give these ministries added importance, and your kindness will help families all around us.

We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet. You can set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/OH283, or text "Enroll" to (216) 930-2992.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

God Bless You,
Fr. Kiser

HELP US UPDATE OUR RECORDS

Please help us update our database records. Does Gesu have your most current information? Please submit your name, address, cell phone and email to hwalter@churchofthegesu.org and we will update our files. If you have adult children or Gesu classmates that wish to update their records, please send their info along too! Thank you for keeping in touch!

TEXT TO GIVE

Giving to Church of the Gesu is easy with Faith Direct Text-to-Give. To give via text, follow these steps:

1. Text $ amount to (216) 930-2992
2. Register your credit/debit card
3. Save this number as a contact in your phone to make future giving faster and easier.

All gifts are tax deductible and will be properly acknowledged by the Development Office. We are grateful for your support!
