Gospel Meditation

Begin by taking a moment to calm yourself, focus on your breathing and become aware of the life force that flows through your veins. Center yourself in the words and affections of St. Augustine's Prayer to the Holy Spirit, "Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy." Sanctifying, bringing things to wholeness, blessing, restoring and creating are just some of the fruits of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not always about proclaiming loud cries of praise or singing alleluia from a roof top. It is about unfolding and encountering the ordinary in an extraordinary way. Being filled with the Holy Spirit means being filled with the fullness of God's life and in touch with the power and wonder of God's presence. It's about becoming holy.

It is not just for saints or people who have a religious vocation. Holiness is for the ordinary, simple run-of-the-mill person who desires to love God, others and all of creation. When an ordinary, humble person becomes connected with life and the wondrous power of God's love, they begin to live life more deeply, a bit more reverently, desire a simple fare and find themselves relishing in ordinary beauty. Their senses become attuned to the Author of life and they realize that they are not alone. The Holy Spirit connects all of the dots of human experience and existence, bringing everyone to center on the Divine Presence. The Holy Spirit does not just breathe "on me" but "in me" and is the force behind every breath I take. Take a moment to soak that thought in. There is the Divine Presence of the Holy Spirit in me, right now. When a person becomes in touch with truth, they know that when inspired by the Holy Spirit, his or her actions are not solely their own. They realize that they are moved by Divine Grace and drawn to things not found in secular affairs.

We live in a world where it is hard to discover truth. Real truth is veiled by so many impostors that it is hard to find, especially for those who are young. It is easy to get fooled and duped and often, without full conscious awareness of doing so, we choose to walk down a path of self-absorption and destruction. It is only the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of the church most especially, who guides us to truth and shows us the way to be the graced and holy human beings God made us to be. The wonders and inspirations of today's Feast of Pentecost are necessary to share with both those we love and those who only casually cross our paths. The first disciples, touched by the Holy Spirit, brought the Gospel to the ends of the earth one step at a time. Is it unrealistic to ask that we assist in that same mission by helping people understand who they are and who God is one at a time? Ask the Holy Spirit to alleviate the fear in your heart that prevents you from doing so.

DISPENSATION TO BE LIFTED

Together, the Bishops of Ohio have decided that the general obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days (including the Saturday/Vigil Mass) is to be reinstated. This will take effect in each of the Dioceses of Ohio the weekend of June 5-6, 2021. As has always been the case, those who have a serious reason are exempt from attending Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. This includes those who are ill, have significant health risk factors or care for someone who is immuno-compromised or ill, as well as those who have significant fear or anxiety of contracting the coronavirus in a large group of persons. Nevertheless, these persons should observe the Lord's Day and are encouraged to spend time in prayer on Sunday, meditating on the Lord's passion, death and resurrection; an appropriate way to do this is through viewing a broadcast of the Sunday Mass. Masses that are broadcast through various media are not intended as a substitute nor do they fulfill the obligation for the persons who are able to gather for a Sunday celebration and other Holy Days of Obligation.

SACRISTANS NEEDED

Have you ever considered helping out here at Church and wondered how? We would really like to expand our team of Sacristans at our weekend Masses. We are so grateful for those who have served in this role and would love to expand the group. It only takes about 15 minutes before Mass to set up and about 5 minutes after Mass to clean up.

Our present team is one person at each Mass, but we would love to add others so that we could alternate weeks, etc. Great training is provided! (It's not difficult at all!) Invite a friend to join you, or even your family. If interested, please contact Sr. Kathleen at kflannery@churchofthegesu.org.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY FOR TODAY

The Society of Jesus worldwide and the entire Ignatian family begins a very special year on May 20 to "celebrate St. Ignatius' spiritual journey from the 500th anniversary of his conversion in 1521 to his canonization in 1622." The following article written by a Jesuit from Cameroon, Africa, "helps explain conversion as a process of recovering from blindness to better sight." Visit: <https://bit.ly/3aCUz5p>.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING: LIVING OUT OUR FAITH

Featured Article

The recent Derek Chauvin conviction for the killing of George Floyd inspired feelings of relief and vindication in many, including the author of this month's feature article, Fr. Bryan Massingale. The verdict, nonetheless, was not viewed as a cause for celebration. It was rather seen as a wake-up call not only for our nation and its policing philosophy and social values, but for our Catholic Church in terms of "its complicity in the country's racism."

The article continues, "This jury verdict is a summons to the Catholic community to embrace the teaching of Pope Francis, who in discussing George Floyd's killing declared, 'We cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of human life.' The challenge for American Catholics is to profess a commitment to anti-racism as an essential dimension of being pro-life."

IGNATIAN THREADS

Pentecost: Jesus sends us The Spirit so we can live out the truths he taught. How do we perceive and receive the Spirit of God? Do we open the door of our hearts to let the Holy Spirit come in and make a dwelling place? As we often do before an Ignatian Examen, we breathe in the Spirit of God's presence and let out the cares and distractions of our day. We hear in the Gospel that the "Advocate" will come. By definition, an Advocate is a supporter, promoter, sponsor - what a wonderful promise! As Ignatius surely did, we can trust in the same "Spirit of truth" that will guide each of us. Do we have an awareness of the Holy Spirit working in our lives? Do we allow the Spirit of God to fill our longing hearts so that our everyday actions reflect the truths of our faith?

April 15, 2021

Dear Gesu Parishioners,

We wanted to take a moment to share our sincere gratitude with the Gesu Community for Fr. Kiser's leadership over the last four and a half years as our pastor. Fr. Kiser has graced our community with his faithfulness, compassion, leadership and sense of humor. During his time, our community has grown in many ways, especially during the last year. When he joined us in the Fall of 2016, he was eager to meet parishioners and hosted several listening sessions to learn about Gesu Parish and set goals for the future.

This effort was successful and has provided much vibrancy to our community. His introduction of One Book, One Parish encouraged everyone not only to read a good book, but to learn more about mortality, saints and the Corporal Works of Mercy. He worked closely with current Principal Lucy Iemmolo to set a plan to increase teachers' compensation and has provided support to make sure the school is exceeding academic standards and maintaining a strong enrollment. Over the past 18 months, Fr. Kiser has worked closely with the Parish Pastoral Council on Gesu's strategic plan. Together, the Pastoral Council launched goals for the parish to achieve by 2025 – nearing Gesu's Centennial anniversary in 2026. Most recently, Fr. Kiser established a successful fundraising program that is providing the financial resources to address plant and capital needs on our campus and is also growing our endowment. These are just a few highlights of his time with us, in addition to visiting the sick, celebrating numerous weddings, First Communions and baptisms, and consoling grieving families at funerals. On top of that, with the help of the parish staff, he has steered the ship through the pandemic!

Fr. Kiser has been a blessing to our community in many ways, and we are forever grateful for the time that he has spent with us. As we bid him farewell and the best of luck in his new role as Provincial of the Midwest Province of Jesuits, please keep him in your prayers.

Fr. Kiser will celebrate Mass with us on May 23 (Pentecost Sunday) at 11:30 am and a COVID friendly Open House will follow the liturgy, either outside or in the Family Center. He will be available to share his goodbyes with parishioners, so if you like, please stop by to greet him. Also, if you are interested in making a gift in Fr. Kiser's honor, he has asked that you please direct it to the Gesu Endowment for financial assistance for Gesu School.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

SHARING THE GOSPEL

One day one of your best friends may move away, and you won't see him every day. You can still stay close to your friend by talking on the phone, writing letters, or sending e-mail messages. Jesus knew he would be leaving. He would not see his friends every day. Jesus promised to send his Spirit to them. When they were confused, the Spirit would show them the truth. When they missed him, Jesus would send them messages by the Holy Spirit. Through the Spirit, Jesus could always stay close to his friends.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

The Spirit takes my message and tells it to you.

PRAYER

God, thank you for sending your Spirit so I can stay close to Jesus, too.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of God's Spirit whispering in your ear.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Before you sit down to read a Bible story, ask God to send his Spirit to help you. When you listen carefully to God's word, the Spirit can send you a special message from Jesus!

THEA BOWMAN CENTER SEEKING VOLUNTEER

Thea Bowman Center is currently seeking a volunteer who has the following capabilities:

SCAM WARNING

Please be aware that emails from individuals pretending to be Fr. Kiser and ChurchoftheGesu were recently sent out to some of our parishioners. If you receive any type of communication from Fr. Kiser soliciting money or gift cards, please disregard it. Father and our Gesu staff would never solicit funds in this manner. If you receive emails asking for your personal information, please disregard them. Gesu will never ask for this information through email. If you ever have any questions whether you have received a legitimate request, simply call the parish office at (216) 932-0617 to confirm.

Phishing emails are one of the most common online threats, so it is important to be aware of the tell-tale signs and know what to do when you encounter them. Here are five ways to spot phishing attacks.

1. The email asks you to enter or confirm personal information.
2. The email addresses do not look genuine - Legitimate emails from Gesu will be sent from an @churchofthegesu.org email address.
3. The email is poorly written.
4. There is a suspicious attachment.
5. The message is designed to make you panic.

When in doubt, throw it out: Links in emails, social media posts and online advertising are often how cybercriminals try to steal your personal information. Even if you know the source, if something looks suspicious, delete it.

Please report suspected phishing to your mail service provider. (i.e., Yahoo, Gmail, Hotmail, AOL, etc.)

A YEAR OF THE CORPORAL WORKS OF MERY

By Cathy Pressimone

What a year. We have been together, apart, living a year that will be referenced throughout history. During this year, we rediscovered the things in life that matter the most. We lived with deprivation - socially, physically and emotionally. We learned that we could do without. We learned that, many times, others were faring worse than us - a lot worse. And we learned the value of our faith on a deeper level.

This year of COVID-19 was the year that Gesu chose to focus on the Corporal Works of Mercy. After reading Kerry Weber's book, Mercy in the City, programs were put into place that would take the corporal works into the community - in spite of the COVID restrictions. Not only did the established Outreach Committees continue their missions, but the parish also stepped up its efforts to live the Corporal Works of Mercy.

In October, food banks received copious amounts of food and cash to help the hungry whose ranks had swollen due to job losses and food shortages. In November, as the deaths from the virus began to increase exponentially here in Ohio and across the world, we looked at programs that buried the indigent and homeless as we continued to pray for the dying and deceased - victims of the pandemic. Gesu's generosity continued and the Christmas Angel Tree Project provided holiday cheer to over 350 people. As the New Year arrived, Gesu continued to give to the needy - this time in hundreds of pairs of socks and underwear that were donated to homeless shelters. In February, the Rice Bowl Project illustrated the parish's willingness to give alms to the poor, contributing over $1,200. In March, food, money and assistance were offered to help support the Veteran's Affairs medical mission and there was an increased effort in prayers for the sick and imprisoned as the opportunities to visit were restricted. In April, a Care for Our Common Home Conversation was held to look for ways that Gesu can focus some of its work around the new corporal work "Care of Creation." Throughout May, awareness of the need to protect the vital resource of water and the continued hunger in our community was the main focus.

I am new to this parish; my family moved to Ohio and into Gesu parish at the end of last May, in the middle of the worst pandemic in modern history. It was a challenging time for relocation, but we found ourselves at home in a parish that is caring, compassionate and willing to be Christ to others. Even when life was onerous and at times heartbreaking, the family of Gesu continuously fulfilled Jesus' command to care for His littlest ones.

What does Gesu Parish do?

- Gesu Catholic School students Hiked for Hunger on May 21st. These are some of the agencies Gesu's Food Fund supports: Greater Cleveland Food Bank, Meals on Wheels, Westside Catholic Center, St. Pat's Hunger Center, and Our Lady of Peace Food Pantry.
- Saturday, May 22nd Gesu's volunteer group worked at Shaker Lakes Nature Center planting some native plants/shrubs throughout their habitats.

What can you do?

Educate yourself on water and environmental issues. Here are some good resources:

- Alliance for the Great Lakes, greatlakes.org, works to protect our most precious resource, the Great Lakes, and organizes Adopt-a-Beach which coordinates beach cleanups and signups. Visit: adopt.greatlakes.org/s/find-a-cleanup.
