Gospel Meditation

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

ROSARY FOR LIFE

Wednesday, September 29, after the 7:30 am Mass
Marian Chapel

"I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary."

- Sister Lucias dos Santos,
one of the children at Fatima

CLARIFICATION FOR WHAT TO DO AT COMMUNION TIME!

According to the Diocesan guidelines, the faithful will:

- STAND during the distribution and reception of Holy Communion for the singing of the Communion Hymn. (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 50, 124, 128)
- KNEEL during the period of sacred silence after the distribution of Holy Communion. This period of silence should begin as soon as the distribution of Holy Communion has been completed. At this point the faithful may sit or kneel.
- The faithful are not required to stand during the purification of vessels, or until the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament (GIRM, 43).

MASS INTENTIONS

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. The offering is $10 per Mass. If you would like a Mass said, please come to the parish office during regular business hours 9:00 am - 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday, and we would be happy to assist you.

1. We do not currently have any Masses available in 2021. If the current weekday schedule continues, we will add more 8:30 am Mass Intentions in November.
2. The Mass Intention book for 2022 is now open for 7:30 am weekday and weekend Mass Intentions. Once the current weekday Mass schedule is evaluated, we may also be able to schedule 8:30 am weekday Mass Intentions.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF HOLY COMMUNION FORMATION SESSIONS

FIRST RECONCILIATION/ FIRST COMMUNION

The 2021-2022 First Reconciliation and First Communion program at the Church of the Gesu will begin soon. If you have an older child who has not yet celebrated these sacraments, we would love to have you join us as well! Additionally, please let us know if the sacrament of Baptism is needed.

Please register for the 2021-2022 program at: <https://membership.faithdirect.net/events/details/7519>.

A digital program flyer is available and posted on the parish website at www.churchofthegesu.org/sacramental-preparation. Contact Marcia Leous for more information at mleous@churchofthegesu.org or (216) 932-0617.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Ladies, it's not too late to join us in learning more about the love and mercy of Jesus found in Sacred Scripture, all while building friendships! We'd love for you to join us for this fall's Women's Bible Study, which will look at the Parables of Jesus. You may sign up for either the morning or evening session. The daytime study is being offered on Tuesdays, 9:00-10:00 am, through October 26. The evening study takes place on Thursdays, 7:00-8:00 pm through October 28. Note that this study will consist of some Zoom sessions and some in-person sessions.

The guide, "Treasures Uncovered," by Jeanne Kun, is available at the Pastoral Center. Suggested donation is $10. We hope you consider joining. Reading and studying Scripture in a small faith-sharing group serves to deepen our relationship with Jesus and with each other. For more information or to express interest, please contact Debbie Bruening at debbruening1@gmail.com.

IGNATIAN THREADS

Peter Faber was from the French region of Savoy, born into a family of shepherds, unable to afford any formal education. Knowing Peter's desire to study for the priesthood, his parents sent 10-year-old Peter to a small school sponsored by their parish priest. He entered the University of Paris in 1525, where he and his roommate, Francis Xavier, studied philosophy and theology. In October, 1529, they added a third roommate, a man several years older than themselves. This new man, Ignatius of Loyola, was known to have a positive effect on the people with whom he came in contact. While Ignatius served as Peter's spiritual guide, Peter helped Ignatius with his difficulties in learning Greek and with other academic matters. Peter was uncertain about what career path he should follow. With Ignatius's guidance, he decided to become a priest. Peter made the Spiritual Exercises with Ignatius just before his ordination.

COFFEE & CONVERSATION RESUMES

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Even though they were friends, sometimes the disciples fought with each other. In today's Gospel reading, they were fighting over who was the most important. All twelve of them wanted to be number one-the best disciple. Then Jesus told them a secret. The best disciple is the one who helps other people.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Ask your family members how you can help each of them this week. When you help them with a cheerful heart, God smiles.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Which one of them was the greatest?

PRAYER

Dear God, when I am tempted to fight with my friends, show me ways to help them instead.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself helping someone who is younger than you.
