"Remember, then, that you received a spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear. Keep safe what you received. God the Father sealed you, Christ the Lord strengthened you and sent the Spirit into your hearts as the pledge of what is to come."— St. Ambrose

Welcome, Sr. Karol Joseph, Sr. Mary Jacinta, and Sr. Brigid from the Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist in Ann Arbor, Michigan. We are excited to have you for VBS this week!

The follower of Christ does hear a music which does not reach the ears of other men; he is bound to be out of step with them, for they are out of step with it. But in our world we must listen to that music with unflagging attention—partly that it may not be drowned out of our own ears by all the tom-toms of chaos, partly that others may begin to catch from us first some hint of the rhythm, then some hint of the tune.

LITURGY CORNER

Next Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. It is celebrated the Sunday after Pentecost to commemorate the mystery of the Trinity: Three Persons in One God (see Matthew 28: 18-20). A votive Mass for the Trinity dates from the 7th century. An office, which is still prayed today, was composed in the 10th century. Pope John XXII then added this feast to the Liturgical Calendar in 1334. As Christianity spread in the early centuries, growing by as much as forty percent per decade, so did the need to preserve the ritual of Holy Mass. The ritual form was carefully passed from culture to culture as seen in the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor 11:23-25). The term Mass comes from the Latin words of dismissal: Ite, missa est ("Go, it is ended") and came into usage during Medieval times. The early Christians referred to Holy Mass as "the breaking of bread". Other terms were "the offering", "the oblation", "the liturgy" which comes from the Greek leitourgia meaning "public service". The Latins, from an early date, used the term "sacrament", while the Greeks favored "the mysteries." Other terms came in and went out, with the term "the Eucharist", from the Greek eucharistia, which means literally, "thanksgiving", becoming the preferred term because it was the preferred term in the Gospels and by Saint Paul (see Mark 14:23, Matthew 26:27, Lue 22:17, and 1 Cor 11:24). The early Christians celebrated the Mass because the Lord Jesus commanded them to do so. Because Jesus had asked them to do as he did, the Apostles and subsequent generations would preserve Jesus' words and actions as something precious and even divine. Gay Snell

San Antonio de Los Lentes

A mission of San Clemente Catholic Church

During the 1680 Pueblo Revolt the San Antonio Church at Isleta was destroyed. When the Spanish returned the Church was rebuilt and renamed for San Agustin. In 1789, to honor their beloved San Antonio, the Indians of Isleta and the Hispanics of Los Lentes built a new capilla (chapel). The 1790 Spanish census mentions the "Pueblo de San Antonio en Los Lentes" and named the Lente, Saenz, Piro and Chavez families as being among the many families who occupied the pueblo.

During the mid 19th century the 'bulto' of San Antonio arrived from Mexico and by the late 1800s the stations of the cross in 'Folk Federal' neo-classical style were brought to the capilla along with other statues of saints. These later additions to the capilla reflected the French influence of New Mexico's first bishop, Jean Baptiste Lamy, who took office in 1851.

The original chapel walls are 30 inches thick and are constructed of 'terrone', a type of adobe block cut from the Isleta swamp. The bell was installed in 1880. The original building was probably rectangular with the current cruciform wings and sanctuary added at a later date. In 1912 a metal roof replaced the original flat roof and at one time there may have been a clerestory window through which sunlight illuminated the altar.

The San Antonio fiesta is still held at the capilla every year on the weekend closest to the feast of St. Anthony (12 June) and many former residents of Los Lentes return to share in the festivities honoring St. Anthony and the community.

You are invited!
Feast of Corpus Christi Procession
Sunday, June 23, 2019
after 12:00 Mass

San Clemente Parish will have its annual Corpus Christi procession with the Blessed Sacrament

under guarded canopy on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi (Sunday, June 23, 2019) following the 12:00 Mass. In the past years various ministries and organizations have hosted the altars that are set up and decorated on the church grounds. Last year we invited parishioners to host these altars and would like to extend that same invitation again this year!

Please call the Parish Office at 865-7385 if your family would like to host one of the altars for the Feast of Corpus Christi.

The altars will be located in the Gathering Room, the Parish Hall and the Courtyard, (the first and fifth will be in the church.) This is a venerable Church tradition and an outward demonstration of our Catholic Faith in the real presence of the risen Christ under the appearance of the Consecrated Host.

All Altar Servers are invited to walk in procession for Corpus Christi on June 23
after the 12:00 Mass.

We would like to have as many Servers as possible participate.
It will be on a first come-first served basis until we run out of cassocks.
