LITURGY CORNER

Today we celebrate The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. We look to them for inspiration in our own families and the importance of families in our world. The devotional background of this feast was strong in the 17th century, particularly in France and Spain. In the 18th century, in prayers composed for a special Mass, Blessed Francois Laval, the first Canadian bishop, likened the Christian family to the Holy Family. Pope Leo XIII consecrated families to the Holy Family. January 1, tomorrow, is the last day of the Octave of Christmas and we fittingly celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. Devotion to Mother Mary has been constant and profound since apostolic times. Since the earliest days of the Church, she alone has been given a veneration and honor second only to God. She is rightly called the Mother of God, "full of grace," "Mother of the Church," and in prayer and devotion "Our Lady," the "Blessed Virgin Mary," and the "New Eve." This is one of the many liturgical Marian feasts. The Hail Mary is among the most basic prayer; the Rosary among the most often said. We thank God for Our Blessed Mother's "yes" at the Annunciation, for the birth of her Son, Jesus, at Christmas, and honor her on January 1 as the Holy Mother of God. Gay Snell

"And when night comes, and you look back over your day and see how fragmentary everything has been, and how much you planned that has gone undone, and all the reasons you have to be embarrassed and ashamed: just take everything exactly as it is, put it in God's hands and live it with Him." St. Edith Stein

Religious Education classes resume the week of January 7th. Students will receive new blue sheet packets on their first day back to class.

Unsure if your student has class? Check out our website at www.sanclementeparish.org for happenings of the Religious Education Program.
