“Rejoice and be glad that so great and good a Lord, on the coming into the Virgin’s womb, willed to appear despised, needy, and poor in this world, so that men who were in dire poverty and suffering great need of heavenly food might be made rich in him.”

St. Clare of Assisi

WELCOME BACK!!

Welcome back students! All Religious Education classes resume this week. Be sure to log into Google Classroom for further instruction.

New blue sheet packets will be available for pickup in the office this week. They will also be available on Google Classroom for students to access. Confirmation Year I students will need to pick up new books for second semester.

- Blue Sheets and assignments are due! Please be sure they are turned in this week.

- Reminders:
  - ◇ Please include your first AND last name on each blue sheet and workbook page. We want you to receive credit for your work, so please identify yourself correctly.
  - ◇ Please staple your paperwork together. (Paperclips are ok, but they tend to fall off when dropped in the drop box. If you use paperclips, use more than one) Big envelopes are also a good idea.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

KINGLY GIFTS

This day in many parts of the world is called Three Kings Day because of today's Gospel reading about the visit of the three kings or magi to see the child Jesus. The church's name for the day, Epiphany, is based on a Greek word that means "to reveal" or "make visible." Here, the child Jesus is honored not by his own people – and certainly not King Herod – but by strangers from afar. Only Matthew's Gospel tells their story. There are not many details about the magi, but pious legends have built up around them over the centuries. A modern version is the operetta Amahl and the Night Visitors, which used to be seen on television at this time of year. The Jewish hope for centuries had been that a Messiah, God's Anointed One, would be sent to the Jewish people to save them from their sins and deliver them from their enemies. But here we see that God reveals the Son not just to the Jews but to the Gentiles, people like us who are also seeking a Savior, one whom they recognize with joy. We have expected the Savior all through Advent; we have celebrated the wonderful gift of his birth during Christmas; and now, in this new calendar year, what gifts will we present to him in return? New Year's resolutions often include a decision to work off all those extra pounds that we have gained from all our feasting and celebrating. That is all well and good as far as it goes, but why not resolve to do something extra for those you love and something more for the community in which you live? Show the love of God that is at work in your heart, or as Saint Francis of Assisi is thought to have said, "Preach the Gospel at all times. When necessary, use words."
