Parish Stewardship

Sunday Offering Received - August 23	$	10,477.00
Budgeted Amount for August 23	$	11,985.00

"Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect."
Romans 12:2

The Bishops in their pastoral letter on stewardship warn us about conforming to the destructive "isms" at work in our culture -- materialism, individualism, and consumerism. Stewardship calls us to generously share what we have with others. Stewardship focuses on our dependence on God. This focus goes against our culture's focus on independence and individualism.

Happy Birthday wishes to the following parishioners who are celebrating 70+ years!

Preparing for Next Week

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Helping Others Grow

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone." (Matthew 18:15)

Ezekiel 33:7-9 - The prophet a watchman
Romans 13:8-10 - Love fulfills the Law
Matthew 18:15-20 - Fraternal correction

Adults: How have you been able to follow Christ more closely because others patiently loved you?

Kids: How can you help another person do the right thing?

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the family and friends of parishioner Jim Porta, husband of Mary Ann Porta; Susan Thomas Glass, sister of Ruth Billings Luckey; and Kimberly Ann Jarboe, step-sister of Tara Gittings, who passed away recently. May they enjoy the Eternal Peace of the Risen Lord.

THE SISTER VISITOR CENTER NEEDS VEGETABLES!

Catholic Charities of Louisville's Sister Visitor Center has an immediate need for canned vegetables – not fruit or soup, just vegetables – because the pandemic has limited the Center's supplies and increased clients' needs. Please email Lori Feris at feris@archlou.org to schedule a time to drop off canned vegetables at the Center, 2235 W. Market St., or call Emily Willis at 502-637-9786, ext. 335 to schedule a drop off at Catholic Charities of Louisville, 2911 S. Fourth Street. If you have more than you can deliver, email Lori to schedule a pick-up. Sister Visitor Center is happy to report that they have offered uninterrupted care throughout the pandemic, giving away thousands of meals and providing the usual emergency assistance.

RETURNING TO CHURCH

Beginning Labor Day (Derby) weekend, Sept. 5th and 6th, all Masses will be in Church. We will follow the protocols of: all in attendance must wear a mask; seating will be every other pew and six feet away from people you don't live with; temperatures will be checked at the entrances of Church.

Mass times will continue to be 4 PM on Saturdays, 8:30 & 11 AM on Sundays. The 8:30 AM Mass will continue to be livestreamed via Facebook and YouTube. Communion will also be available from 9:30 - 10:30 AM each Sunday.

Please know that there is still no obligation to attend Sunday Mass if you feel your age or health would make you more susceptible to the Corona virus.

Prayers and love,
Fr. Chuck

ENTERING THE SCHOOL BUILDING WHEN SCHOOL IS IN SESSION

After much hard work, St. Bernard students have returned to in-person classes. We have added many new protocols to help keep our students and community healthy. We are asking parishioners who need to be anywhere in the school building during school hours (7:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.) to please sign in with the school office. Your temperature will be checked before you can be admitted. You will be required to wear a mask while in the building. We appreciate your cooperation in keeping St. Bernard healthy!

Fern Creek/Highview
United Ministries
9300 Beulah Church

FCHUM is truly going through tons of food each week. The greatest needs are:

- toiletries (shampoo, laundry detergent, dish liquid, bar soap, toothpaste, etc.),
- cleaning products,
- kid friendly foods (ravioli, pasta sauce, beans, canned meats, soups, crackers & mac-n-cheese

We are also looking for PPE items such as gloves and disposable gowns for our Adult Day Center.

Donations can be dropped off at the ministries located at 9300 Beulah Church Rd on Monday – Friday between 9 AM and 3PM or can be placed in the baskets at the doors of church before or after weekend masses. Other ways to donate include the FCHUM Amazon wish list at <https://a.co/7otKUHE> or via the FCHUM website at www.fchum.org.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT WORKSHOP

The Archdiocese of Louisville requires that all adults who work with children in our parish communities attend a “Honor Thy Children Safe Environment” training session and have a background check. Background check forms are available from Larry Abell. The following workshop dates are on the calendar. You do not need an appointment, just come 15 minutes early and register. SESSIONS LIMITED TO 50 ATTENDEES

Please note: Children are not allowed to attend this training.

PEACEFUL WITNESS TO THE DIGNITY OF HUMAN LIFE

Right to Life of Louisville is hosting its annual Walk for Life fundraiser at Christian Academy Rock Creek, near Seneca Park, on Saturday, September 12. Registration and rolling start begin at 9:00 a.m. and the Walk officially starts at 10:00 a.m. Walkers raising $75 and families raising $125 get free comfort color t-shirts commemorating the Walk. Walkers are asked to wear masks and maintain social distancing. Temperature checks of walkers upon arrival. Please consider joining the pro-life community in an outward expression of Catholic teaching on the respect for the dignity of every human life. Details at krla.org.

PARENTING POINTERS

What posture or gestures do you find helpful to pray? For some, kneeling feels most reverent. For others sitting, holding hands, or gazing at nature helps. Parents often bless their child at bedtime with the sign of the cross. There is no wrong way but lots of right ways. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

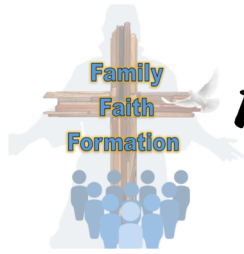

"You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped." (Jeremiah 20:7) Life can be like that. When you were baptized, confirmed, married, you probably had positive expectations about how this commitment would work out. And then one learns that faith and marriage can be challenging, even disappointing at times. It's not all bliss and beauty. But still we hang on because underneath it all is someone who loves us - despite our failings. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Congratulations Deacon Ted Marks and Theresa

After five years of discernment and formation Deacon Ted Marks was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on August 29, 2020.

In celebration of this wonderful gift to our Catholic Church and to St. Bernard Parish, Deacon Ted will preach and assist at all three Masses on August 29th and 30th. After each Mass, and during drive-by Communion, Deacon Ted will be present and we'll pass our homemade cookies to everyone.

Family Faith Formation 2020-2021

Family Faith Formation is our parish religious education program for families with children in grades K - 8 that do not attend Catholic Schools to receive their ongoing Catholic faith formation. We invite all families with children in grades K - 8 that do not attend a Catholic School to learn more about this year's adaptations and/or to register for our program using the QR code or visit www.stbernardlou.weshareonline.org. If you have any questions please contact Cyndi Marlow in the parish office 239-5178 ext 125.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I missed baseball this past spring and early summer. Perhaps it's because I am a Cubs fan, but I'm amazed at how humbling the game can be. It's not uncommon to see yesterday's MVP strike out with the bases loaded or an ace relief pitcher blow a save. I wonder if that's how Peter felt when Jesus rebuked him. In last week's Gospel, Peter recognizes Jesus as the Son of the Living God. Jesus blesses him and tells him, "Upon this rock I will build my Church." However, today, after Jesus tells the disciples that he must suffer and die, Peter argues with him. Jesus knocks Peter down a few notches when he calls the would-be rock "an obstacle." But the winning line here is: "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Imagine how incomprehensible it was to Peter that Jesus would suffer, die, and rise on the third day. Like Peter, we will have days when we "get it right" and feel in sync with Jesus, and days when we feel like we're chasing the ball in the sun, and yesterday's peace and certainty seem out of reach. In both instances, Jesus reminds us that God really does know best. Whether we're at the top of our game or struggling, it's reassuring to know that God is our rock — and has a plan.

PRAY/REFLECT It's OK to bring God our to-do list! I'm reminded, however, of a spiritual director who suggested I try to talk less and listen more. It may mean carving out some quiet time each time we pray. Another way to give ourselves over to God's wisdom is by simply reciting the Our Father and paying close attention to the words: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Sometimes my prayers get pretty specific. Please make the chemo obliterate my friend's cancer. Help my husband find a job. Show my son which career path he should choose and help him succeed. When I'm not making God an oncologist, recruiter, or career counselor, I am known to ask him to be a divine meteorologist (Please no rain tomorrow, thank you!). There is nothing wrong with asking for what we desire, or need. But today's Gospel alerts us of the temptation to tell God how to be God. For Peter, it was saying, "Surely you need not suffer and die." Jesus reminds Peter, and us, that we don't know how best to accomplish our salvation. God does. And so, in our prayers and our approach to life, we can ask for God's healing and help, but we also need to trust in God's plan and understand that his answers may not be what we have in mind.
