ALL SOULS DAY

St. Bernard will observe All Soul's Day at each of the Masses on the weekend of October 31 – November 1. All Soul's Day is a special time to pray for and to remember our deceased loved ones. 2020 CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL BRINGING CHRIST TO OTHERS

Every year St. Bernard parish benefits greatly from the ministries and offices of the Archdiocese of Louisville. In fact we receive much more than what we give to the Catholic Services Appeal. We are aided in our school, our pre-school, all of our formation ministries, our worship, and administratively weekly if not daily. Besides that, our gifts go to help people in parishes and through Archdiocesan ministries that need a hand up. Help us reach our goal AND help us help bring Christ to others in the counties and parishes of our Archdiocese by being generous with your gift to the 2020 Catholic Services Appeal.

Our Parish Target - $65,200

Our Parish Participation Goal - 268 households

ST. BERNARD AUCTION 2021

Given the uncertainties we face from the COVID-19 pandemic, the decision has been made to hold the St. Bernard Auction 2021 virtually. The auction will open at the end of February and run for two weeks. We are beginning the process of securing the needed donations of goods and services to be offered at the auction. If you own a business, or have a contact with someone who does, we are asking you to consider a donation. This biannual event is a major fundraiser for our parish. Please be generous with your donations. Reach out to others who would be willing to help. Your help is greatly appreciated!

MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP KICKOFF

Middle School students are invited to join us for pizza and popsicles with Father Chuck to kick off this year's youth group. Please bring a chair and mask when you come, and also be mindful of how you're feeling and who you've been around recently.

The culminating event of this week is the Virtual High School Fair, which will be a wonderful opportunity for students and families to learn more about Catholic high schools and how they serve the needs of their community. The morning of the fair, you will receive an email with the specific session timing, as well as information on how to join each school's live presentation and contact information for individuals at each high school to request additional information after the fair. FALL FUN CAPITAL PRIZE RAFFLE

What a year it's been so far! As many of you know, we were unable to host our annual parish picnic and hold our $10,000 capital prize raffle. With that being said and "normal" traditions a way of the past right now, St. Bernard is holding its first Fall Fun Capital Prize Raffle for $10,000 (or 50% if sales are under $20,000)! The drawing will be held between Masses at 9:45 a.m. on Sunday, November 1!

As you know, our community depends on this raffle to support the financial needs of our parish community and supplement the other forms of generosity (time, talent and treasure) we receive from our parishioners and school families.

To purchase the raffle tickets ($5 each), you can complete the form (available in the back of Church). Once you have completed the form, please place it in an envelope. You can then drop it in the box in the back of Church, mail it to St. Bernard Church, Attn: Leslie Hooker, 7500 Tangelo Drive, Louisville, KY 40228, or drop it off at the Parish or School Offices.

You may also purchase tickets on the WeShare page on our website:

<https://stbernardlou.weshareonline.org/ws/opportunities/FALLFUNCAPITALPRIZERAFFLE>

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Leslie Hooker at hooker@stbernardlou.com or 239-5178, ext. 130.

As always, we are amazed at how much our parish and school families continue to support each other and this community during this unusual and interesting year! Thank you for your continued support!

THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I took up distance running some years ago, thanks largely to a group of friends who encouraged me along the way. We'd share the peaks and valleys of our lives as we tackled rolling hills. Those long runs come to mind when I hear Paul give thanks to the Thessalonians for having "endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ." Paul here speaks of hope in Jesus - a hope that has the risen Christ as its foundation, and is central to the Christian life. When I think of what lies at the end of a long run, such as water and blissful rest, and how grateful I am for these simple pleasures, I cannot help but rejoice in the hope that St. Paul refers to today. Our catechism makes it clear: "We firmly believe, and hence we hope that, just as Christ is truly risen from the dead and lives forever, so after death the righteous will live forever with the risen Christ and he will raise them up on the last day." (989)

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

During a particularly challenging time, I confided in a close friend over the phone. She didn't just offer to pray for me, she actually prayed with me on that phone call. I don't recall her exact words, but she called on Jesus to help me trust that God would see me through. So often, it can be hard to find the words to encourage others in their faith. When that happens, why not bring Jesus into the conversation? It may seem awkward at first, but offering to pray with another person in real time can be a powerful witness and encouragement. As Christians, we don't rely on "hoping" that everything will work out in the end; instead, we know that our hope is in Christ Jesus. As the catechism says: "Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness." (1817) It doesn't get much more direct than that. Reflect on what "hope" looks like for us as Christians. And then tell a friend about it.

DID YOU KNOW? The source of our second reading today, the First Letter from Paul to the Thessalonians, contains the earliest mention within Christian literature of the three theological virtues: "faith, hope and love." Reread today's passage, and then read 1 Thessalonians 5:5-8. In prayer, we can ask God to help us grow in all three virtues and show us ways to share them with others.
