Reflection:
Again and again in the stories of Acts of the Apostles we hear of the trials and sufferings endured by the first Christian missionaries because of their proclamation of Jesus. These first missionaries realized that hardship was inevitable, indeed necessary, part of Christian discipleship. Such had been, after all, the way of their Lord and master.

The Gentiles’ faith in Jesus seems to have been one of the most unexpected happenings in these early days, despite numerous Old Testament texts which point to it. This, too, became cause for rejoicing and praising the Lord.

5th Sunday of Easter - We glory in the victorious love of Christ. All true love has its origins in God, who is love itself, and so the Christian believer must seek to love as God loves, and to share love as abundantly as God shares it with his creation. Love is the very hallmark of the Christian life.

Paul and Barnabas continue their travels, strengthening the spirits of the disciples and giving an account of all that God has done with them. In the second reading, John foretells the restored creation where God will make his home among his people and wipe away all their tears. Jesus gives his disciples a new commandment to love one another.

Children: How do you make obvious that you love your family and friends?

Youth: The world is full of examples of people who don’t love others. What are the results of hate that you see in the world? How would the world be different if we followed Jesus’ commandment?

Adults: Jesus’ commandment to love another is a challenge. What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life?

Prayer Corner

Following the lead of Christ the Good Shepherd, we heed his voice and invitation to entrust our loved ones to the care of the Almighty God. Let us pray often and with great hope!

This Weeks Saints/Memorials:

Memorial of St. Bernardine of Siena, Priest (May 20) - St. Bernardine of Siena (1380-1444) was an Italian Franciscan, a priest, and preacher. He was orphaned young and raised by a pious aunt. While still a student, he helped care for the sick during an outbreak of the bubonic plague, contracted the disease, and almost died. Bernardine joined a strict branch of the Franciscans, called the Observants, around 1402. Known as the “apostle of Italy” he preached devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus, popularizing the use of the monogram HIS and encouraging his hearers to burn unnecessary luxuries in “bonfires of vanities.”

Memorial of St. Christopher Magallanes, Priest and Companions, Martyrs - Christopher Magallanes was a Mexican priest whose years of ministry coincided with an extreme anticlerical era in Mexico. He was falsely accused of promoting rebellion and arrested while on his way to celebrate Mass. Christopher was killed without trial after absolving his executioners, saying, “I die innocent, and ask God that my blood may serve to unite my Mexican brethren.” He and his companions died between 1915 and 1928. He was canonized by St. Pope John Paul II on May 21, 2000, along with twenty-one priests and three layman, also martyred for resisting the anti-Catholic Mexican government of he 1920’s.

Hymn for Night Time

Now that the daylight dies away,
By all thy grace and love,
Thee, Maker of the world, we pray
To watch our bed above.

Let dreams depart and phantoms fly,
The offspring of the night,
Keep us, like shrines,
Beneath thine eye,
Pure in our foe’s despite.

This grace on thy redeemed confer,
Father, coequal Son,
And Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
Eternal Three in One.

Just for Laughs!

Why did the man turn on his computer on a hot day? He wanted to open Windows.

What’s the difference between a red light and a green light? The color, silly.

One evening as a mother was preparing dinner, her seven-year-old son came down to the kitchen, crying hysterically. The loving mother bent down and said, “Honey, what’s wrong?” “Mom,” he said, “I just cleaned my room.” “Well, I’m very proud of you,” she replied. “But why on earth would that make you cry?” Her son looked up through his tears and said, “Because I still can’t find my snake.”

Why does it take longer to run from second base to third base than from first base to second base? Because there’s a shortstop in between.
