Thank You, God for Little Things

Thank You, God, for little things that often come our way—
The things we take for granted but don’t mention when we pray—
The unexpected courtesy, the thoughtful, kindly deed—
A hand reached out to help us in the time of sudden need—
Oh, make us more aware, dear God, of little daily graces
That come to us with “sweet surprise” from never-dreamed-of places.

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ - Christ fulfills in the Eucharist his promise to be with his people always. As the source and summit of our faith, we celebrate Christ’s enduring presence with us in the mystery of the Eucharist. Here we encounter his love and healing, here we are strengthened and nourished to live the Gospel and to hope for a share in his eternal life.

Returning from battle, Abraham meets the king of Salem who invites him to offer bread and wine to the Lord. In what is the first written account of the Last Supper, Saint Paul reminds us that he is handing on what he received regarding the true meaning of the Eucharist. Jesus welcomes the crowd and feeds them in the Gospel, instructing his disciples to do the same.

Reminder, there are Mass Intention envelopes at the doors of St. Joseph’s Church and at the Church of Assumption.

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of the parishioners at Assumption and St. Joseph’s for your gracious support and friendship during my time as your pastor. The Redford Pie Booth will never be the same nor parishioners at Assumption and St. Joseph’s for your thankfulness and encouragement. I am grateful. Keep me in your prayers as I’ll keep you in mine.

I laughed and cried with many of you and experienced the joy, love and patience throughout. My walk of faith has been enhanced by your words and actions and I am truly grateful. Keep me in your prayers as I’ll keep you in mine. And I promise, after 5 1/2 years of hearing people pronounce “Redford”, I think I finally got it.

Reflection on the Sacred Heart of Jesus
By Jennifer Hubbard

Their innocent voices filled the church as the offertory procession advanced toward the altar. I watched as he carefully carried the crystal pitcher containing what would become Jesus’ blood. When they arrived, my brave one extended the vessel and bowed low. My heart cracked open and salty tears streamed down my face.

Jesus tells his disciples, for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins (Mt 26:28). Jesus does not reserve his love for the few. He does not suffer only for those who love him. He offers his life to save all humanity because humanity cannot save itself. His pure and unstained heart is pierced. Its blood poured out forms pools at his feet to wash clean our sins. His blood poured out freely to seal, sanctify, and save from weakness. He lays down his life and offers his heart because of his love. A love so great, for we are his beloveds, and No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends (Jn 15:13).

I approach the altar bowing low, just as my brave one had moments before. Extended to me is a cup filled with the blood from the very heart pierced for my forgiveness - a cup extended to fill the very person for whom it was emptied. Through the outstretched hands, I am offered his heart. I quietly offer mine as I extend my open hands to accept his.

Things to ponder... You are rich according to what you are, not what you have!

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. Nativity of John the Baptist this Monday, June 24.  John the Baptist was the great prophet and herald of Jesus the Messiah. He prepared the way of the Lord and revealed Jesus to others as both the Messiah and the Lamb of God.  St. John exemplifies the Christian life as one who proclaims the Gospel message of healing and repentance while he points out Christ to others and shows them the way to become united with God.

The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

this Friday, June 28.  The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is celebrated on the Friday after the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.  This devotion has a life outside of the liturgy as well: the nine Fridays and the twelve promises made by Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque are still familiar to many Catholics.  World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests is every year on the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.  Pray for all priests on this special Friday, June 28th.  Pray, too, for vocations to the Priesthood of Jesus.
