A Prayer for Patriotism on the Fourth of July
(From the Catholic Prayer Book compiled by Msgr. Michael Buckley)

Heavenly Father, purify in all the people of this land their love for the nation according to the mind of your Son Jesus Christ, who knew what was good for the peace of His land and people. May everyone strive by word and action to foster peace among the people of all social classes and creeds, so that, living in harmony and justice, they may be a Christian light to other nations, such as your Son would have them be.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Jesus summons us to him and then sends us out as messengers to proclaim his kingdom.

The Christian life is one of following the way of Christ. Jesus calls us out of our worldliness, out of our habits and attachments, to follow his way. And after we encounter the Lord, he send us out to proclaim the truth of his kingdom.

In the reading from the First Book of Kings, the Lord tells Elijah to find Elisha and anoint him as prophet to succeed him. Elisha, though he wants to wait until he can say goodbye to his parents, nevertheless slaughters his oxen and follows. In the second reading, Paul writes to the Galatians about the freedom that Christ came to bring us which, if we live by the Spirit, allows us to not be controlled by the desires of the flesh. In the Gospel, Jesus is making his final journey to Jerusalem, and tells those who want to follow him that they must do so without delay.

This week's Saints:
Bl. Junipero Serra (1713-1784) was a Spanish Franciscan friar, best known for founding the string of twenty-one missions that stretch from San Diego to Sonoma, California. Junipero was born in Majorca and at the age of sixteen entered the Franciscans. After completing his theological studies, he served as professor of philosophy at Majorca before volunteering for the missions in the New World. Upon arrival, he went to Mexico City to dedicate his mission at the shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Serra founded his first mission at San Diego in 1769, and worked his way up the coast along El Camino Real, making converts as he went. In spite of a leg injury he suffered at the beginning of his ministry, he traveled on foot whenever possible, eventually covering twenty-four thousand miles. The chapel at Mission San Juan Capistrano is believed to be the oldest standing building in California, and it is the only mission left where Serra is known to have celebrated the liturgy.

St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria (1502-1539) was from Cremona, Italy. He was born into a noble family, and dedicated himself to the Lord from a young age. He studied philosophy, went to study medicine at the University of Padua, and practiced for three years before deciding to become a priest. Anthony had already done so much study that he was ordained quickly, in 1528. He founded three religious orders: the Barnabites or Clerics Regular of St. Paul, the Angelic Sisters of St. Paul for nuns, and a lay community. In addition to founding the Barnabites, he popularized the forty-hour devotion of exposition of the Eucharist.

St. Peter's Festival: This Sunday, June 30th. Children’s games and monster slide are free, the food great, the auction very large, and a flea market from the trunk awaits. You can find it on the grounds of the former Seton Academy, Plattsburgh. Come right down North Catherine Street.

Environmental Stewardship: A Tip for “CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME”: Buy an inexpensive reusable water bottle, and stop buying plastic disposable bottles that fill up the landfill and use petroleum to manufacture. (My favorite is the Kleen Kanteen with the sport cap.) Then watch the Story of Bottled Water, a short movie about the bottled water phenomena on You Tube. “Taken from: 40 easy ways to go greener at home—besides recycling. “But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God.” If you are considering boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God as a priest, deacon or religious, talk to Fr. July is the Month of the Most Precious Blood of Christ

Just for Laughs!

I couldn’t stop myself from laughing last night as I was putting my 2-year-old and 4-year-old into bed. “I’m closing the door now and I don’t want to hear a peep!” I hollered sternly. I was about to close the door in a huff when I saw my two-year-old standing in his crib with a defiant look on his face, saying, “Peep, peep, peep, peep.”

Schoolhouse fun!
A kid comes home from his first day at school. Mom asks, “What did you learn today?” Kid replies, “Not enough. I have to go back tomorrow.”

“No act of kindness, however small, is ever wasted.” -Aesop

A store manager overheard one of his salesmen talking to a customer. “No, sir,” said the salesman, “We haven’t had any for a while and it doesn’t look like we’ll be getting any soon.” The manager was horrified and immediately called the salesman over to him. “Don’t you ever tell a customer we’re out of anything! Now what did he want?” “Rain,” answered the salesman.
