Parish Mission Statement

Declaración de la Misión de Nuestra Iglesia St. John Neumann

“To strive together to be Christ for each other and our neighbor.”

“Esforzarnos juntos para ser Cristo el uno para el otro y para nuestro prójimo.”

Dear Parishioners,

I join Bishop Guglielmone in encouraging Catholics from all over our state, and especially from St. John Neumann, to join a march and rally on Saturday, June 20 to express our solidarity with our African-American brothers and sisters and to combat racism. Bishops from the Fellowship of SC Bishops (among whom, our bishop is in fellowship) will be there.

As is the norm during this time of pandemic, efforts to ensure social distancing through masks and six feet of spacing are to be part of this call for justice

The following is Bishop Guglielmone’s message to us:

“Bishop Samuel L. Green Sr., of the Seventh Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, invites people of all faiths to participate in an ecumenical Peace Walk on Saturday, June 20, in conjunction with AME’s Juneteenth celebrations.

I encourage each of you to invite Catholics to join the Diocese of Charleston as we march with Bishop Green. All people interested in attending are asked to meet at 11 a.m. at Allen University, 1530 Harden Street, in Columbia. The group will walk together to the Statehouse.”

I plan to be there, mask on, and ready to be an ally in the cause against racism.

Missing seeing all of you very much,

Fr. Sandy McDonald

VIRTUAL PARTICIPATION IN SUNDAY MASS WITH COMMUNION - IN SCHOOL CARPOOL LINE

If you are uncomfortable being in public spaces, consider attending Sunday Mass while in your car.

You are invited to park in the school carpool line and parking areas and tune in to the Mass through your phone or electronic device at <https://www.facebook.com/stjneumann/>.

At the end of the live Mass, the communion ministers will proceed to the breezeway at the entrance of the school to distribute Communion to those who have been watching the Mass in the school parking lot. You will be directed to drive around the circle in a single line to the covered walkway, stopping one at a time where the ministers are standing. A minister for each side of the car will provide Communion in the hand through the window. If it is not practical for all to get to a window (three rows of seats in a van, for example), the family can open the door and/or step out of the car to receive. All in the car are required to wear masks when receiving Communion.

Once those in the first car have received, please drive on and allow the next car to come to the communion station.

START DATE: Sunday, June 7

School News

Members of the St. John Neumann Catholic School community continue to work diligently in preparation for the 2020-2021 school year. We have excitedly begun virtually meeting to craft a reopening plan for the school. This committee consists of medical professionals, parents, teachers, and administrators. We look forward to sharing the information as we continue to seek counsel from the diocese and state to ensure that neither academic excellence nor safety is compromised this coming school year.

Join our school family! We have anticipated job openings for 2020-2021! Please email a resume and cover letter to rpoles@sjncatholic.com or apply at in-deed.com.

We are currently offering tours, either virtual or in-person, of our school. We welcome all to see what SJN has to offer our PreK-3 through 6th grade students. Schedule a tour at (803) 788-1367 or online at sjncatholic.com.

Bringing Communion Home

If you have family members who need to shelter in place and cannot come to Mass, you may bring them Holy Communion. In order to do so, you must have a pyx in which to carry it. It is usually carried reverently in a small wallet called a burse, and is taken directly home after Mass.

You may come by the office to obtain one; for a small donation we will give you a pyx, a burse, and the ritual prayers that accompany the giving of Communion at home. You can also purchase a pyx at the St. Francis Shop. Please contact the office to let us know that you will be bringing Communion home. Present your pyx when you receive Communion, and pick up a copy of the prayers at that time.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

June 22–29

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. Join us in promoting religious freedom For the Good of All.

All people desire to know their Creator. All people have a natural impulse to seek the good and to live in accordance with that good. All people can flourish when they pursue the truth about God and respond to the truth.

Religious freedom means that all people have the space to flourish. Religious freedom is both an American value and an important part of Catholic teaching on human dignity. When we promote religious freedom, we promote the common good and thus strengthen the life of our nation and the community of nations.

UNEMPLOYED TOGETHER: THE CATHOLIC SPIRITUALITY OF WORK AND UNEMPLOYMENT DURING THE COVID-19 CRISIS

An online discussion group for adults
in the Holy Johnny Virtual Meeting Room
Six or more sessions
Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. starting on June 23, 2020

A job loss or reduction of work often leads to a whole range of legitimate emotions, while also needing to deal with the practical realities of life, both immediate and perhaps long-term. What is the meaning of our work and labor in the plan of God? How does our Christian faith play a role in guiding us through this challenging time in life? What can I do to support those who are now unemployed?

These and other questions are the topics of our first parish-wide virtual discussion group for adults. Based on the book The Spirituality of Work: Unemployed Together during the COVID-19 Shutdown by Joseph Gossé and Ann Naffziger, the discussions will be led by Tom Druffner. You participate from home. A free copy of the material will be sent to each participant.

All are welcome!

To take part, you will be given a meeting room invitation to participate (a link and a code). To sign up, just drop a line to Tom Druffner at TDruff143@gmail.com.

For more information, contact Catherine Combier-Donovan at the SJN Parish Office at 803.788.3252 or CCombierDo@SJNChurch.com.

This marks the beginning of our new parish initiative, Faith@Work, a ministry to provide support and networking for those sharing the common experience of job loss.
