PASTOR'S NOTES

The Lord be with you!

We return to the Baltimore Catechism this week and finish its examination of Christ's Death, Resurrection, and Ascension. Following the words of the Nicene Creed, we affirm that after His Ascension Jesus now sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. Even there Christ continues to act as Our Savior, now interceding on our behalf.

Question 418. Where is Christ in heaven?

Answer. In heaven Christ sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

Question 419. What do you mean by saying that Christ sits at the right hand of God?

Answer. When I say that Christ sits at the right hand of God I mean that Christ as God is equal to His Father in all things, and that as man He is in the highest place in heaven next to God.

My Commentary.

In kingdoms - especially ancient and eastern ones the right hand of the king was a place coequal in power with the monarch. Generally speaking, the more powerful and extensive a kingdom, the more layers that a kingdom's court would have. At formal ceremonies these different levels of government would be both literal and metaphorical - with ministers occupying lower and more distant seats the further removed they were from the king. To be at the king's right hand was thus to be on the same level of the king on account of the king.

When we use this analogy about Jesus we are affirming exactly what Question 419 plainly states: Jesus is completely equal with the Father in His Godhood. Calling to mind that the Trinity has always existed, is currently existing, and will continue to exist, we need to note that there was no change in the majesty and greatness of God by Christ's Incarnation or His Ascension. God is always just God. What is fascinating by this analogy, however, is how it captures that Jesus does occupy a place by His Human nature, while at the same time affirming no distinction in power and majesty in between the different Divine Persons.

That last point brings us to the difficulties of understanding heaven properly. Heaven is not a geographic place but a different realm of existence that controls ours. Most ancient peoples used the same word for heaven and the sky in order to show that heaven was above them. Keenly aware of how storms influence the ground below them but not visa versa, ancient peoples had correctly apprehended part of what was going on.

Often we use heaven to refer also to God. Just as we name a government by its location (such as when we refer to the United States Federal Government as "Washington"), we sometimes to refer to what is properly God's action by using the word "heaven." Since God is the First Cause of all other beings, He directly sustains all of existence. In this analgous sense, heaven is the source of our being and is thus more real than we are. Much as the earth could not exist without the sun, the entire cosmos could not exist without God. Yet, God is not in Heaven in the sense that we would be in a location: He is above it. All the angels and saints occupy a place dependent on God whereas God exists independently of any place and time. Grasping this can be very difficult since it confronts us with a truth about God that our language can barely phrase (you are getting closer the more your head hurts ;)

Bad puns aside, we should take great comfort in knowing that Jesus (and Mary) have brought our human nature into perfect accord with God in heaven. Glorified and resplendent in power and might, Our Lord rules all of creation to our benefit. Our prayers always reach God through the humanity of Christ. Jesus, King of the Universe, is also the eternal high priest forever interceding for us. May we sing His praises till the day of His Glorious Return.

In Christ, Fr. John

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME & TALENT

Ask Father

Q—What is the status of the Ss. Peter and Paul school? A—We are currently in the end stages of negotiations for the sale of Ss. Peter and Paul school with two local businessmen, Mark Melvin and Dino Trinetti. Mr. Melvin and Mr. Trinetti presently own Pompili Precast Concrete and a few other ventures. They would purchase the school and the area right around it from us and then lease part of the school to North Shore High School (a new charter school) and part of the building to Rising Stars Daycare and Child Enrichment (who has been in the school for several years). We hope to have the deal closed as early as January 2nd so that the charter school would have time to make improvements. Although the school will own part of the parking lot, we would be able to use their section whenever we needed just as they would use ours. Also, we would still be allowed to use the parish hall just as we always have for our meetings - in fact, we plan on having some storage in the building. Our pastoral and finance councils are in agreement that this would be a good deal for us. Some of the details of this such as price - will not be disclosed till the deal is complete. Lastly, all proceeds from this sale would go to Ss. Peter and Paul. If you have further questions, please let me know.

Q—What is the status of the St. Therese school?

A—We are currently in formal negotiations for the sale of the St. Therese school with Charter School Capital. They would purchase the school and its lot outright from us and then lease the school to T-2 Honors Academy. T-2 Honors Academy would start running their charter school in the Fall of 2020 for grades 9-12. We would sell the building in early 2020 so that the school would have time to make improvements and get everything ready in the building for the next school year. Also, we would still be allowed to use the parking lot of the school on the weekends for our Mass parking. I am hopeful that we can conclude negotiations soon so that in February or March the property could transfer. Our pastoral and finance councils are in agreement that this would be a good deal for us. Some of the details of this - such as price - will not be disclosed till the deal is complete. Lastly, all proceeds from this sale would go to St. Therese only. If you have further questions, please let me know directly.
