Our Mission

We, the Church of Annunciation, rooted in our belief in the Eucharist, accept the call of God to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with our parish community and beyond. We strive to be witnesses to our faith through our responsible stewardship and by welcoming and caring for others as Jesus taught us.

Please keep this RCIA candidate in your prayers throughout the season of Lent.

Consider sending them a note... cards may be left in the office.

Welcome to Church of the Annunciation

I want to take some time to thank parishioners, who participated in last Friday's fish fry. I noticed that many parishioners also brought friends and relatives to volunteer. It was great walking into the hall to see so many people volunteering, making it a tremendously successful event. It was also a wonderful sight to see the many people of the community and the parish who came to enjoy the food as guests. It seems that the fish fry at Annunciation has always been a popular place to dine with family and friends. Many families seem to find the fish fry at Annunciation to be a place for families and friends to gather to enjoy the evening and the food. So, the event provides more than just food for people to eat; it has become a community event everyone seems to enjoy. Again, it could not happen without the many volunteers who show up on Thursday afternoons to set up and on Friday evenings to prepare the food and serve the many guests who enjoy all that is provided.

I want to thank Mark Kane and Mark Thomas for coordinating these events. I know Richard and Chris James provided the cooking and coordinating for many years before the two Mark's came aboard. Thank you to all who have been involved through the years. Mark Kane and Mark Thomas have unselfishly provided the leadership by organizing and coordinating each event, and have invited and encouraged volunteers to participate by serving, cashiering, cooking, cleaning, preparing food and doing dishes. There have been a number of people who have been in the background, helping in so many ways, and the parish thanks all of you for hanging in there year after year, and Friday after Friday. The fish fry is a good example of the ways people of the parish seem to be willing to step-up to participate in parish activities. This event also helps the community outside of the parish observe Annunciation parishioners in action. If you have not had the privilege to volunteer to help at a Friday Fish Fry, please come to the hall on Thursday and Friday afternoons and assist in any way to feel comfortable. I wish I could name all of you to thank you for your volunteering service, but know that you are blessed in so many ways and you bless your parish through your service. Thank you.

Fr. Al Ebach, C.P.S.
