GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

Last weekend I spoke in my homily about Letting Go and Letting God. We are sure getting a lot of reminders to do that in current times so I hope "practice makes perfect". It has surely become a regular part of my life to the point that whenever I recognize the anxiety growing in me, I use that as a prompt to surrender more deeply to God, remember that he is fully trustworthy in caring for each of us, and because of that to let go.....at least momentarily. May the Holy Spirit draw each of us to a greater letting go and may our witness shine forth to all around us of the security and certainty we have in Jesus!

It has been wonderful to have more people back at Mass, with our current numbers around 260/Mass. Thanks for all of you for not resisting our requirements to sanitize hands, maintain social distancing, and wear masks. We are all making new habits for sure. Remember when coming up in the Communion line to maintain space between you and anyone not in your family group. Likely our current level of capacity will remain in effect for quite some time. Sign-up online will continue and currently those signing up are coming to Mass about two out of three weeks. Big improvement since Thanksgiving when it was one out of five weeks!

And for a bit of humor during these dark days as we celebrate Catholic Schools Week:

Here are a couple of answers children provided when asked what kind of animal they would choose to be.

Oneida, age 9: "I'd be a giraffe so I could wear hundreds of necklaces."

Theresa, age 9: "I would be a tyrannosaurus rex so I could eat my 11-year-old brother. He wouldn't taste good, but it would be worth it to get rid of him."

I remain incredibly proud of our faculty and their patience, flexibility, and persistence in the midst of all the changes throughout COVID. Well done good people! And, thanks to the families who are embracing Catholic education with us. You have proven that we can safely and effectively have in-person school during these trying times. Please see the school information on the following page of this bulletin. Registration is underway for the next school year and we already have had huge response.

Blessings to Inioluwa Mabawonku and Robert Ward, who were baptized this weekend!

FAITH FORMATION

YOUTH MINISTRY | 6-12TH GRADE

Nick Krautscheid – 971.282.6173 nkrautscheid@htsch.org

Join us on Sundays at 12:30pm in the school gym for fun activities, prayer, and small groups! All 6th - 12th graders welcome.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

The Love of Christ... A meditation. Consider my love for Him and His love for me. It's an important consideration. Set aside the first half (our love for Jesus) and first consider His love for us. First, some thoughts about how Jesus loves us:

- ✦ "I always thought love was shaped like a heart, but it's actually shaped like a cross." (His love is as His love does.)
- ✦ "The Gospel is the only story where the hero dies for the villain." (I've heard about laying one's life down for a friend, but a villain?)
- ✦ "Though our feelings come and go, God's love for us does not." –C.S. Lewis (Important things rarely are affirmed by feelings.)
- ✦ "By the cross we know the gravity of sin and the greatness of God's love toward us." –St. John Chrysostom (Speaks for itself; good St. John C.)

Jesus' love for us is complete, uncompromising, faithful, and so deep that we can't begin to imagine the "heights or depths" it ascends and expands to. In a time when we all need something to get behind and give our love to, let's unite in our love for our Savior, Jesus Christ, who has spared us nothing.

"O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I believe in your love for me, I implore that I may ever love you more and more. Have mercy on us sinners, as we put our trust in You. Amen." +

EXPLORING FRATELLI TUTTI

A Joint Column by the HT Health & Social Justice Ministries

Chapter Five: "A Better Kind of Politics"

"Good politics will seek ways of building communities at every level of social life, in order to recalibrate and reorient globalization."

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis calls for "a better kind of politics," one that "is the people's politics, practicing social charity and pursuing human dignity." We are called to seek good and assist in developing opportunities for all people. Authentic politics requires respect for the law, each other, and candid dialog. Our conversations and decision making processes must undergo constant renewal with each generation, as they bring unique talents and newly acquired knowledge.

The Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace wrote that "social love is a force capable of inspiring new ways of approaching the problems of today's world, of profoundly renewing structures, social organizations, and legal systems from within." We must combine love with hope, confident that the goodness of our hearts will guide us. Christ's love empowers us to challenge ourselves: How much love did I put into my work? What positive forces did I unleash? How much social peace did I sow?

They are back! In case you have not heard, the Farm to Family emergency food boxes are being distributed again each Thursday at 9:00am. We work with our church neighbors next door at Beaverton Foursquare to distribute 900 boxes of fresh, nutritious foods. The boxes contain produce, dairy products, meat, and more. We were thrilled to learn that a local distributor, Pacific Coast Fruit Company, was again selected. They do an excellent job and are a true joy to work with.

I take the opportunity to talk with many who come as they are waiting for the process to begin. I hear over and over again the impact these boxes have on the families, many of whom are struggling to put food on the table due to job loss associated with COVID. I also talk to many who come to pick up for neighbors, or communities, who do not have the means to come themselves. It is a true blessing to be a part of such an impactful outreach.

This effort is funded by the Federal government and will run through February. It is expected that there will be an immediate 30-day extension taking us through March, at which time a need-evaluation will be done. Two extensions of 90-days each will then be considered. All hope and pray that by the end of one of these periods we will be through the worst of this and the need will diminish. Please join in that prayer.

If you or someone you know could use one of these boxes, please come to the Beaverton Foursquare parking lot on Thursday mornings. We start at 9:00am, but it goes quickly so I encourage you to not come late. No appointment or proof of need is required. You stay in your vehicle and one of us will load the boxes in for you. Once we start loading it goes very quickly as we load upwards of six vehicles at a time. Our own Knights are there helping to guide traffic. I am pleased to say no accidents or smashed toes so far!

If you or someone you know needs food and cannot make Thursday morning, please come to our Food Closet. While everything is now done outside, we still offer a large variety of items including produce, meat, eggs, milk, bread, canned items, and other staples. Because of your generosity, we have plenty of food to feed those in need. Please be certain to check in on your neighbors and let them know we are here to help.
