GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

Okay good people, read up for some final instructions about Holy Week and Easter! Next weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and that launches us into Holy Week. Beginning this weekend we are offering Holy Communion outside the church at BOTH the 5:30pm Mass and the 9:30am Mass. Please extend the word to anyone you know who is either uncomfortable coming inside yet or wishes to participate via live streaming in the parking lot on weekends they are not selected to come inside. Also, please know that we do not have adequate wireless bandwidth to service that amount of people without compromising our broadcasting, so you will need to use your own data plan.

We have initiated sign-up for inside worship for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and our Easter Masses including the Vigil — see Fr. Hans' column for details. Overflow for all of these liturgies will be in the parking lot, with every possible effort being made to assist you in participating fully, including Holy Communion, veneration of the cross, and sprinkling with baptismal water. I am grateful to each and every one of you for the adaptations you are making and for the ways you are staying connected with Holy Trinity through this challenging year. Well done!

Holy Thursday — 5:30pm

Good Friday — 5:30pm

(Note: NO 3:00pm Stations of the Cross this year)

Easter Vigil — 5:30pm

Easter Sunday — 8:00, 9:30 & 11:15am

We are asked every year how to get rid of old palms. Since they have been blessed, it is preferable that they not be put in the garbage. Instead they can be burned, returned to the ground (composted), or put in the yard debris bin.

Last week, funeral services were held for JoAnn Johnson. We were also saddened to learn of the death of longtime parishioner Harry "Hoot" Haugsten (services TBD). May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

FR. HANS' PAIR O' DIMES

Easter is approaching, and that means it's time for the sign-ups for Triduum and Easter liturgies. We will celebrate six total liturgies that weekend: 5:30pm on Holy Thursday, 5:30pm on Good Friday, 5:30pm on Easter Vigil, and 8:00, 9:30, and 11:15am on Easter Sunday.

Given that our regular sign-ups for weekend Mass currently includes about 1,800 people, I figured the most fair thing to do would be if everybody got to participate inside the Church for one of these six liturgies, which means about 250-300 people signed up for each. To maintain our physical spacing, that means we'll have people sitting in the front pew, people sitting in the window seats, about 20 people in the chapel, and maybe a couple people standing in the narthex.

Sign-ups for Triduum and Easter Liturgies are now available through our website at h-t.org/attendmass.

When signing up, you will be asked what your first choice is and what your second choice would be. I recognize that for some of you, one of these liturgies holds particular importance in your personal faith life. If you feel very strongly about being inside for a particular liturgy, simply mark that as both your first and second choice.

If, on the other hand, you are relatively indifferent about which liturgy you get to be inside for, please indicate that in the 'Comments' box. My hope is that everybody will get at least their first or second choice, but I recognize this may not be possible.

All of our Triduum/Easter liturgies will be livestreamed, and you are welcome to participate at any or all of them from the parking lot. As Fr. Dave mentioned, we will have communion stations outside for all six liturgies, as we do for our live streamed weekend Masses.

Timor-Leste has the highest rate of child malnutrition in Asia. Many children suffer from stunting, which means their growth is restricted and they cannot develop as well as they should. Home gardens and fishponds are helping families provide better nutrition for their children, but challenges like changing weather patterns make it difficult to grow enough food. Have you ever been hungry? What did that feel like? Feeding the hungry can take many different forms. What is one way you can practice this work of mercy?

What can you do to support the hungry in your community and around the world? Visit h-t.org/lent#ricebowl to continue your Lenten journey with CRS!

Debbie Gray – 503.524.5365 – debbie.a.m.gray@gmail.com

You may have heard (and are now feeling concerned) about how some people have side effects and others don't after receiving a COVID-19 vaccination. According to the CDC, side effects are normal signs that your body is building protection. They may make it difficult to do daily activities, but should go away in a few days. Those who don't experience side effects shouldn't worry, either; the vaccine is still working. Visit h-t.org/health-ministry for a list of common side effects and what you can do to relieve them!
