GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

Geepers, it sure is good seeing some normalcy return, even with traffic! We are continuing to increase numbers in the church for weekend Masses, and every weekend are getting reacquainted with parishioners who have been at home for all these months. What a pleasure that is.

Beginning this weekend, we are discontinuing our selection process for Masses. You are welcome to come to any Mass every weekend! And, a reminder that we will continue to livestream the 5:30pm and 9:30am Masses and will bring Communion to the parking lot at those Masses. If you come to Mass and find too many people inside for your comfort level, please know there is no shame in choosing to participate in the parking lot or at home. Masks are still required in the church for weekend Masses as we get used to more people present.

As we begin to return to normal, we are seeking new or returning greeters for all the weekend Masses. All that is required is a cheerful disposition and a willingness to commit an hour and 45 minutes every few weekends. As a greeter, you will be the first person that our parishioners see as they arrive for Mass, and your primary job will be to welcome them. If you would like to learn more about the Greeter Ministry and what they do, please contact the coordinator, Jim Huntzicker, at huntzicj@ohsu.edu or 503.536.5068.

Looking ahead, our send-off for Fr. Hans will take place after all four Masses the weekend of June 26-27, with an ice cream social after the Saturday Mass and the return of Coffee and Donuts on Sunday! His final day with us will be June 30th, and then he will take over as Administrator (pastor for all practical purposes) at St. Juan Diego Parish. NO! You may not transfer your membership over! Ha. Fr. Tony Galati (currently Deacon) begins here on July 1st and I look forward to welcoming him. I ask you to pray for both him and Fr. Hans as they make these transitions!

The photos on front of the bulletin are of our graduating class. Congratulations to each of them as they move forward into High School! God bless each of them, and all graduating this year.

Blessings to Isabella & Madilyn Heberling Duran, who were baptized this weekend!

Congratulations to Lauren Tavelli and Luis Matheus, who were married here on Saturday, June 12th! Blessings to you both, and to all of our engaged and married couples.

FAITH FORMATION

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

When you say "AMEN", say it like you mean it! Let's think about our prayers. First, how do we start them? We begin with, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." We begin by invoking the Holy Trinity that is God, and by making the sign of the cross as we say these words, we wrap ourselves in the embrace of God Himself.

Then, we pray. Think of what pray means. We ask, we appeal, we urge, and we recite, and when we are finished, we say AMEN! When we pray with others, like with our priests and deacon at Mass, we listen and take their prayer in, and when their prayer ends, we also respond with AMEN. Whether they are our personal prayers or the prayers we participate in at Mass, we pray, meaning what we say. Don't we?

The words of the prayer of the Mass has, for thousands of years, proclaimed the truth of our faith both ancient and new. Amen lets us say, "Exactly, I couldn't have said it better myself!" and that "I certainly, and truly, and verily mean what we just prayed together." Whenever we pray, let's appreciate the beautiful dialogue that we are entering into. It is our God who enters it with us, and we know He means what He says!

"For no matter how many promises God has made, they are 'Yes' in Christ." 2 Cor 1:20

And to this, I invite all of us to say, "AMEN!" +

For my first article, I thought I would introduce myself and share a little about my background.

My husband Arron and I raised our three sons in the Bethany area and attended St. Juan Diego Parish. We moved three years ago and now live in the Murray Hill area. We tried a few parishes in the area but absolutely fell in love with the Holy Trinity community. In 2018, I decided to “retire” from Nike after working there for 19 years. I held many positions in the supply chain operation part of the company, and my last role was Sales Operation Manager for the Running category.

During the pandemic, my husband was volunteering at the Food Closet purchasing meat and eggs every few weeks. He asked me if I was willing to fill in for a volunteer that was going to be out for six months. I said, “Sure, I love volunteering.” It was an amazing experience both working with the volunteers and the people we help. When Al approached me to take over his position, I was extremely honored and humbled at the same time. I am aware how important this ministry is to the community. He told him to pray about it and let the Holy Spirit guide me; so here I am. I can tell you I am excited and a little nervous, but I am confident with the support I have, that I will continue the great work that Al has started.

Speaking of Al, we were able to thank him for all his great work on his last day at the pantry. It was an opportunity to wish him well and even serenade him with a lovely song. Thank you to the volunteers for making that day special!

I look forward to your feedback and support.
