GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

Okay, the time is here to bid our fondest farewells to Fr. Hans! Please join us after any of the four Masses this weekend for receptions in his honor. May God bless him and guide him as he begins pastoring at St. Juan Diego Parish! I am deeply grateful for the time we have had together and have huge respect and affection for Fr. Hans!

Next weekend you will be meeting Fr. Tony Galati, our brand spanking newly ordained priest. I look forward to his time with us and for the witness the Holy Trinity Community continues to make. He will be introducing himself at the end of Masses on his first weekend and will have lots of experiences right away with confessions, baptisms, funerals, weddings, and the ongoing pastoral care issues that are part of serving in parish life.

Our gradual lessening of restrictions for weekend Masses is resulting in an increase in numbers as expected. We will continue to require masks inside church for weekend Masses but have no restrictions now on number of people who can come. Currently the side pew areas are still marked off with seating in every other pew; the rest of the church has no restrictions. Progress! And, it is so very good seeing the vitality of Holy Trinity establish itself again. Live streaming of the 5:30pm and 9:30am Masses remains available with Communion brought to the parking lot for those participating there.

Blessings to Akudo Abanulo, Aeva DeHart, Hayden Gossen, and Kylie-Analeigh Pangelinan, who were baptized this weekend!

Last week, funeral services were held for Rose Hutchinson and for Giuliana Andersen. Services this week are scheduled for Madeleine Nelson at 10:00am on June 29th. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

FAITH FORMATION

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

"Let me love you, my Lord and my God, and see myself as I really am" – Wow, what a way to begin a prayer! Am I confident enough to actually ask God for this?

The author of this prayer, Pope Clement XI, is! Clement continues, "a pilgrim in this world, a Christian." Let's consider this. First, what Clement says for himself also pertains to us, so he calls us pilgrims in this world. Our real home is heaven, and as far as earth goes, we are just visiting. Clement names us Christians, followers of Jesus and he reminds what that means. We are "called to respect and love all whose lives I touch." Who exactly does he mean? EVERYBODY, and he lists who that is: "those in authority over me or those under my authority, my friends and my enemies."

Then, Clement asks for God's help as follows: "Help me to conquer anger with gentleness, greed by generosity, apathy by fervor. Help me to forget myself and reach out towards others." Now, spend some time with this wise Pope's "Universal Prayer" There is something in it for everybody! It ends with this, "Grant that I may prepare for death, fear judgement, flee hell, gain paradise."

As fellow pilgrims let's take a moment to check out and pray this "Universal Prayer." Like all things we ask from God, we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen! +

RETRouvaille

503.225.9191 – portland@retrovaille.org

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vaye; French for "rediscovery") is an international marriage ministry program, Catholic in origin, designed to help couples heal and renew their marriages. Are you frustrated or angry with your spouse? Do you argue constantly, or have you just stopped talking altogether? This program has helped tens of thousands of couples experiencing difficulties, disillusionment, and distress in their marriage. It is open to all couples of all or no faith backgrounds. The next Oregon Retrouvaille program begins with a weekend retreat at Mt. Angel Abbey on August 6-8. For confidential information about the program, call or email the contacts above. To register and learn more, go online to <https://oregonretrovaille.com>.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION

Mike Prusynski – 503.619.7888 – michael.prusynski@tek.com

Could you not watch with me for one hour?

After our monthly First Friday Mass, individuals sit with our Lord for an hour at a time (some choose to stay longer) on a scheduled rotation. We are currently in need of a dedicated adorer from 4:00-5:00pm and after 10:00pm. If you would like to spend an hour in peaceful prayer each month or want more details, please contact Mike Prusynski!

“Technology based on the use of highly polluting fossil fuels. . .needs to be progressively replaced without delay. . . . [T]here is reason to hope that humanity at the dawn of the 21st century will be remembered for having generously shouldered its grave responsibilities.”

— Pope Francis, Laudato Si' 165

Global leaders will meet this fall for two critical U.N. conferences on climate change and biodiversity, and the Global Catholic Climate Movement is sponsoring an online petition calling on them to take action. It emphasizes the need for leaders to work together and address these crises in a way that fosters equity and protects people's rights, especially indigenous and local communities. Week one without AI! So far the closet is still standing and families continue to be fed. Let's be honest, I am going to ride AI's good works for a few months, not to mention I have an amazing volunteer team that will not let this ministry fail. I am constantly learning more details on the running the Food Closet: bread runs, milk and produce delivery, etc. There are lot of details to wrap my head around but the more I am in the mix the more I enjoy it.

A new program that started last week is a direct result of our partnership with the Village Baptist Church. As AI mentioned a few weeks ago, we took the food from the Village Church when they closed their food pantry. Most of the donations that they received were from local libraries. The libraries would put a box out and ask for non-perishable donations. Not all libraries are currently open, so when I gave out our information, I really did not think we would get a lot of response. I was wrong; we got a pretty sizeable donation from the Aloha Library. So far the response has been really good and the staff at the library is willing to drop of the donations. I am inspired by them caring enough to make a difference.

During the school year, we work with a few local schools to ensure that they have food for families in their community. Now that school is ending, we will continue to find new ways to get them the food to those that need it during the summer months. Unfortunately, food needs do not take a holiday. I will keep you posted.

Thank you for all your encouragement and support; I truly appreciate it.
