GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

I have a follow up quote from the one I used in my homily last weekend (“Every time we use religion to draw a line that keeps people out, Jesus is with the people on the other side of the line”). Ken Canedo was given this one years ago: “The Church can legislate what is a sin, but only God knows who is a sinner.”

As we know well, it is so easy to fall into the pattern of judging-condemning-dismissing, and Jesus calls us to a much deeper way of living – a way beyond tolerance and inclusiveness. I remind you of St. Paul’s words in Ephesians: humility, patience, gentleness, bearing with one another, preserving the unity by focusing on common ground. Come Holy Spirit, because we have a long, long way to go!

A reminder that we are no longer live streaming the Saturday evening Mass. As our inside numbers have steadily increased the need for watching remotely has diminished. 9:30am Mass will continue to be streamed with Holy Communion brought to parking lot for those participating outside.

Summer projects are continuing here on our campus. Pews will be removed this week for new carpet installation. Next weekend expect some mess as the project carries over for a few more days. Daily Masses will be held in the Fireside Rooms beginning Monday morning. Enter through the school or through the Fireside patio.

For all who are watching the Olympics I urge you tune in especially to the men’s marathon – it will be on live for us at 3:00pm on Saturday, August 7th on the USA network. Our very own Galen Rupp is running – his fourth time as an Olympic athlete! God bless him and all those participating.

Blessings to Gavin Huynh, Olivia Mandujano Acosta, Olivia Medeiros, and Lillian Wells, who were baptized this weekend!

Congratulations to Ly Nguyen and Phillip Ho, who were married here on Saturday, July 31st! Blessings to you both, and to all of our married and engaged couples.

Last week, funeral services were held for Jim Brown. Funeral services are scheduled for Wayne Hudson this Saturday, August 7th at 2:00pm. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

HOLY FATHER’S INTENTION FOR AUGUST

FAITH FORMATION

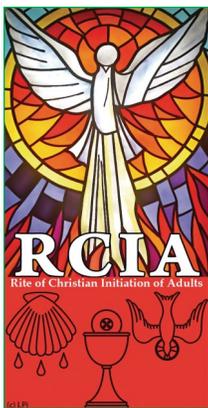

RELIGIOUS ED. | K-5TH GRADE FIRST COMMUNION & CONFIRMATION

Chris Storm – cstorm@htsch.org

Our team is hard at work putting together final calendars for K-5th grade Religious Education, First Communion prep., and Confirmation prep. Look for a game plan to be published by mid-August, with programs beginning later in September. In the meantime, if you have any questions about what's coming down the pipe, feel free to send an email to Chris! All announcements will be made here in the bulletin and on the website.

RCIA

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Are you interested in learning more about the faith and becoming Catholic? Do you need to complete your sacraments? Are you returning to the Church after being away and need a refresher? RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) begins in September! Email Erin to learn more about taking part in these classes, and sign-up online at www.h-t.org/rcia.

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES IN EVERYDAY LIFE

Jeanette Grimaldi – 503.730.8870 – spiritualexercises.SEELPDX@gmail.com

SEEL Portland (Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life), a ministry of Jesuits West, are offering their 2021-2022 retreat as a fully online experience – and they still have space available!

The Spiritual Exercises, developed by St. Ignatius of Loyola (founder of the Jesuit order), are composed of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices to help people deepen their relationship with God. They present a pathway to deeper prayer, good decisions guided by keen discernment, and an active life of service to others.

The SEEL retreat is based on the adaptation of St. Ignatius' original Spiritual Exercises and 30-day retreat, inviting people to go through the Exercises with the guidance of a spiritual director over a period of nine months (September through May) while continuing to live their daily lives.

As it did last year, their nine month retreat will offer one-on-one spiritual direction twice a month, a three-hour monthly mini-retreat, small group sharing/listening, and a book for reflection and prayer. Due to the pandemic, SEEL Portland has greatly reduced the overall cost of tuition, and there is financial assistance available as well. No one will be refused because of financial concerns!

The deadline for registration is Sunday, August 15th. To register and learn more, visit seelportland.org!

Loving Our Neighbor

In Matthew 22:39, Jesus tells the Pharisees that the second great commandment is “love your neighbor as yourself.” Who is my neighbor? We believe that we are all part of the body of Christ, which makes us neighbors, even those who think differently from us. Take some time this week to have a conversation with someone as you stand in line at the grocery store. Introduce yourself to a “stranger” at Mass. No judgement, just loving conversation. Together we can become one united body of Christ.

Dear God, sometimes, it would be easier if I didn't have to consider certain people neighbors: the one who cut me off on the highway the other day; that loud friend of a friend who always seems to dominate conversations; the person with the political sign in his/her yard. Grant me the patience and humility to be a neighbor to all. Amen.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Gloria Bernard – 503.799.4496 – globernard2@gmail.com

How to Build a Culture of Life

“When someone is facing great trials, we need to meet them where they are, walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however he directs. When a woman becomes pregnant, and her boyfriend threatens to leave if she continues the pregnancy, we need to lovingly walk with her. When family members or friends become seriously ill, we need to assure them that God still offers them something in this life, and they still have purpose. We need to consistently be with them every step of the way. Sometimes our actions speak for themselves; other times, words are needed. Whatever the situation, Jesus knows how to speak to each person's heart; we simply need to follow where he leads.”

BLESSINGS

Now that summer is in full swing, a lot of the volunteers at the pantry have been taking long over due vacations. This means that some days I help serve customers and am not at my desk. One of those days I was helping serve, I had just popped in to my office to grab a report when a local company called and asked if they could donate some lettuce. They said that they had an extra pallet they did not need. I thought sure; how many boxes could it be? Well, 135 boxes to be exact! As much as we tried we were not going to fit all the bags of lettuce in the fridges we have, so we had to get creative. We called other pantries in the area that were open, a local women's shelter, and one customer took a few box to a pantry he volunteers at. We were able to find a home for all the lettuce boxes.

On top of the lettuce, we received quite a few individual donations of plums, apples, bananas, cherries, squash, and green beans. We are also getting regular donations from a local community garden. Plus the Oregon Food Bank sent over vegetables and deli items with our weekly order. Our refrigerators were at capacity! One volunteer commented, after seeing all the produce, that it felt like Christmas in the pantry.

With all the food we received, we needed to make sure that we gave it out in a timely manner, so we made sure that we were generous. We also made sure that everyone that came through had the opportunity to share in the blessings we received.

On the last day of the week and nearly the last customer for the day, I got to meet the largest family I have seen since working here. A family of 15 showed up with their youngest daughter – just 3-weeks-old! – in the car. They were very grateful for all the food we were able to share with them. It made a huge difference to them.

For those of you that donate to the pantry, thank you on behalf of the people we serve.

Your donations are truly a blessing!
