GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

Last weekend I spoke about our daily decision to follow Jesus and the importance of renewing that decision over and over. Living in these times of so much uncertainty, it is even more urgent that we each attend to our spiritual lives in concrete ways. Being at Mass, making a meaningful Morning Offering, examining our consciences regularly, reading from the Bible and other inspirational books – these are all tried and proven ways of responding to the grace God gives us to remain in friendship with him.

Here are words sent to me by one of our parishioners. Rich!

“As a child, we are told, ‘don’t put all your eggs in one basket’.

As an adult I kept moving my eggs into the basket labeled: ‘Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior, Brother.’

And now I realize that all my eggs are in his basket, and I appreciate the risk I take in my faith and hope in Jesus.

I believe; help my unbelief.”

As fall approaches all our usual activities and programs are being planned. Be watching our website and bulletin for information about:

- ✧ Parish Picnic
- ✧ Youth Ministry

- ✧ Religious Education
- ✧ First Communion prep
- ✧ Confirmation prep
- ✧ RCIA

Music Ministry is always seeking singers and instrumentalists to help lead our community in worship. Special welcome to our young people as we try to rebuild the 11:15am Sunday Mass. Easiest way to get more info is to talk with our music people after any of the Masses! Steve, Ken, and Mark will all be glad to assist.

I tested positive for COVID earlier in the week and am at home in quarantine. My symptoms are relatively mild, thanks to being vaccinated. I will return as soon as CDC/OHA protocols allow. In the meantime, I am doing scheduled appointments via Zoom. I am grateful for Fr. Tony and the staff for filling in the holes! My boys (Tuxy and Figgy) are keeping me company. COVID bonus: the litter box no longer smells!

This weekend, funeral services were held for Frank Walkiewicz. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

ALLY HAS RETURNED!

Hello, everyone! It's good to be back in Oregon!

I spent the summer at Notre Dame taking theology courses. My favorite class was titled "Writing with Light," where I learned to write a Byzantine icon. We began by sketching faces and garments and eventually learned to paint with egg tempera. My final product was an icon of St. Gabriel the Archangel. It was an amazing experience!

I am very excited to be back at Holy Trinity for my second year of ministry. This year, I will continue working with Youth and Young Adult Ministry, Religious Education, and Sacramental prep. I have also begun a training program in the Creighton Model FertilityCare™ System that will allow me to teach women and couples how to understand and appreciate their fertility! I'm eager to share this with the community, and you'll see more information online and in the bulletin in the coming weeks.

I look forward to reconnecting with you all and hopefully meeting more of you – come say hi when you see me on Sunday mornings!

Holy Trinity School is hard at work getting ready for the return of our teachers (August 30th) and the return of students (September 7th)! We are almost perfectly full with just three openings in the whole school (grades PK-8). New families and new staff join us this year, and we can't wait to welcome them. Most exciting is our new partnership with Ken Canedo to provide Choir Direction, Liturgical Music, and Music Appreciation Seminars to all of our students. As we start our new year, with continued COVID worries, please keep us in your prayers. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out!

MINISTRY NEWS

SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY

Eileen Sleva – eileen.sleva@gmail.com

Sept. 1st is World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

"[This day] offers to individual believers and to the community a precious opportunity to renew our personal participation in this vocation as custodians of creation, raising to God our thanks for the marvelous works that He has entrusted to our care, invoking his help for the protection of creation and his mercy for the sins committed against the world in which we live." – Pope Francis

Care of creation could be our eighth corporal work of mercy with everyday actions, pressuring governments to implement what they have promised, and by actively praying! We must keep alert about what is happening to our common home, "not to amass information or to satisfy curiosity, but rather to become painfully aware, to dare to turn what is happening to the world into our own personal suffering and thus to discover what each of us can do about it" (Laudato Si' 19). Visit h-t.org/our-common-home to learn more!

Healing Within Marriage from an Abortion

"The devastation of abortion brings with it many challenges. Often, the people who have participated in an abortion are unaware of the countless ways it is affecting their lives. . . . But with the help of an abortion healing ministry, couples can successfully work through abortion-related challenges. God's grace can bring true healing to the relationships of those who trust in His infinite mercy."

If you would like to spend an hour in peaceful prayer each month or want more details – especially before our next First Friday, which is this Friday, 9/3 – contact Mike Prusynski!

Over the last few months, I feel like I have gotten a pretty good handle of how to keep the pantry stocked with food and running smoothly. I think God realizes that one of my strengths is that I like to shop! The one aspect of this job I am constantly learning and fine tuning is being a good steward to those in need.

A couple weeks ago, we had a gentleman show up to ask about where and when the next dental van would be in the area. He did not have a computer and was currently living in his car. I went in the office, made a copy of the van locations, and helped him identify which ones were near him. I asked if he needed food, water, or anything else and he said no.

After I gave him the dental information, he began to tell me that he was a prophet, and that orbs of light were communicating with him. The only thought that came into my head at that time was to listen to him. So I did. He explained in very great detail his experiences and what they meant to him. He quoted scriptures from the Bible and explained that he was special. He was excited and passionate and it gave him joy.

Most of the things he was describing were things I would not think were normal, but to him it was everything. I realized that is not my job to judge anyone; everyone has their own unique experiences and my role is to be as compassionate and loving as I possibly can. I think I did an okay job with him but this an area I will need to continue to fine tune. I will continue to pray for patience and understanding, and I know I will be a better steward to the community. Thank you for your love and continued support!

Pope Francis
@Pontifex

God does not come in extraordinary events, but works amid the apparent monotony of our daily life, in the frequently dull rhythm of our activities, in the little things that, working with tenacity and humility, we achieve in our efforts to do his will.
