GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

I am fully back into the routine here at the parish and school after vacation. Grateful for a restful, enjoyable, and productive vacation with good blend of family time, outdoor work, alone time, and a couple of fun day trips with one of my brothers. Fall is season, and weather was just what I like!

Each fall we do some housekeeping reminders. Please take a look at the following. I especially urge any of you who are new to Holy Trinity or have moved and changed contact info to let us know. During COVID I have heard of a lot of changes taking place!

- ✦ If you have been coming to Holy Trinity regularly, we invite you to get registered here. Also, if your contact info has changed please let us know. Easiest way to do both is on our website: www.h-t.org/registration. You can also stop by the Information Desk after Mass if you aren't a fan of going online.
- ✦ Fr. Tony and I are eager to serve in the best possible way. We are happy to anoint folks before or after any of our Masses in addition to our First Wednesday of the month anointings at the 8:15am Mass. If you or a loved one become seriously ill and/or homebound, please don't wait until the last moment to ask for anointing.
- ✦ Pew Hospitality: avoid insisting on sitting on the ends of the pews and requiring later arrivals to climb over you. Even at church we strive to put others needs over our own comfort.

- ✦ Please accompany young children to the restroom.
- ✦ Remember that our gathering for Mass is our public worship of the church. Avoid personal expressions of piety that do not follow the practice of the community. I am especially concerned about folks who genuflect or kneel before receiving communion as this poses a trip hazard to those behind them. This is one of those areas where we're asked to sacrifice our personal piety for the sake of the Church's public worship.

Blessings to Ethan Do, Connor Kwong, and Bentley Sonoda, who were baptized this weekend!

Congratulations to Elise Romero and Neil Turiano, who were married here on Friday, October 8th, and to Nhung Pham and Tony Tran, who were married here on Saturday, October 9th! Huge blessings to both couples.

We are saddened to note the death of Sam Krause, who passed away last month. Funeral services are scheduled on Friday for Loretta Squires and on Saturday for Gladys House, both at 11:00am. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

BRETT'S TWO CENTS

Hello, everyone! Two riddles to warm up your brains, and then an announcement. First, the riddles:

1. If you were running a race and you passed the person in second place, what place would you now be in?
2. A doctor and a bus driver are both in love with the same woman, Sarah. The bus driver had to go on a long bus trip that would last a week. Before he left, he gave Sarah seven apples. Why?

(answer location will be revealed after the announcement)

Okay, announcement: One of the challenges we run into with such a large parish, particularly as we get into the fall, is having enough Masses available for those who would like to “have a Mass said” or “offer a Mass” for someone. A couple of years ago, we did some homework and found that Church law allows us to schedule no more than two Masses per week with multiple intentions attached to them. Since the graces of the Mass are infinite, an intention offered as part of a “shared Mass” counts just as much as if it were the only intention for that Mass. Accordingly, we began allowing two of our weekday Masses each week be a shared Mass with two intentions.

That change has helped a lot, but we still end up “filling the calendar” for the year before the year is up. Last year, our calendar was full in early December (a huge improvement from being full in mid-July when we didn’t have shared Masses!) but this year we were full in mid-September – including our shared Masses. Sadly, this has resulted in our needing to send people elsewhere in search of an available Mass for the last month.

After reading more on Church law regarding Mass intentions, we’ve determined that it is appropriate to allow for more than two intentions for a single shared Mass. Erica was able to move intentions that had been made with no specific date or notice requested, so we now have a good number of available Masses to schedule an intention through the end of the year, along with the option to add an intention to one of our two weekday shared Masses, if you’re wanting to schedule it sooner rather than later.

Hopefully, this will allow us to serve everyone that would like to have Mass offered for whatever intention is on their heart. If you have questions or concerns, feel free to ask me, Fr. Dave, or Fr. Tony.

To schedule an intention, email (parish@h-t.org) or call Erica or come in to the office. If you’re wanting to schedule intentions for next year, however, please wait until November to send her an email with your list of requests; she gets the new calendar toward the end of the month and will then begin scheduling those requests in December. Reach out to Erica if you have any other questions about scheduling an intention!

Now, about those riddles – you’ll find the answers at the bottom of Page 4 in this bulletin!

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Do I respect the holiness of the Name of God? Do I even think about it? Or does "God" become a descriptive I use to add emphasis to a sentence? Worse, is it an expletive used in anger before the word 'damn'? Is God's name the letter 'G' in the acronym OM_? Do I even think about any of this enough to consider the answers?

Maybe the better question would be, "How do I respect the holiness of the Name of God?" One shows respect for God's holy name by blessing it, praising it, and glorifying it. It's wrong to use God's name in any improper way. Technically, it's considered a grave sin.

Let's think about all the reasons that God should be honored, praised, loved and cherished. Let's find ways to embed it into our consciousness and our speech as a sign of love and respect for the God who loves us, erasing any of the less than perfect ways His name is damaged or harmed.

As human beings, we are called to know God's great love for us and then to love Him back. One important way can be in how we speak about the One we love. He doesn't take our name in vain; let's return Him the same favor.

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow!" Amen +

The number of families we serve through the Backpack Program continues to increase each week. We continue to provide fresh produce for the families while trying to balance the weight of the bags for the kids. Our client numbers for the pantry have been pretty steady for the last couple of weeks. We did see a slight decline on the first day of rain, but we are back on track with the continuous stream of clients. We'll soon start preparing for Thanksgiving; details to come in a couple of weeks!
