Jesus says, "In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." (Lk 14:33)

September 8, 2019 – 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Once again we are reminded that to be a follower of Jesus we must be willing to carry our cross. Jesus does not tell us to focus on what others are or are not doing but to pay attention to what we do. Following Jesus' example is not easy. Learning how to love and forgive is a lifelong process. We cannot change anyone but ourselves. However, our example can inspire others. What kind of inspiration are you giving to others?

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. ~ Psalm 90:12

I will shorten my presentation to 10 – 15 minutes and offer it immediately after next Sunday Masses Sep. 15th, 2019 8:30 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church, Eden and 10:30 a.m. in St. Joseph Church, Grenville.

FROM YOUR PARISH PRIEST

Second Collection due to Hurricane Dorian: Bishop Swain authorized a second collection in our diocese to be taken at the discretion of each parish pastor. I will get it scheduled. The financial assistance goes to the U.S. Catholic Bishops without local costs to Catholic Relief Services to provide assistance outside of our country and to Catholic Charities USA to provide assistance inside our country. Bishop Swain encourages contributions through these established Church-approved agencies to assure accountability and minimal administrative costs. You also can make checks out to your local parish and note that it is for Hurricane Dorian relief. Bishop Swain asks us to offer prayers for those who have died, have been dislocated, and those whose lives have been changed forever by this natural disaster. He prays, “May Our Lady of Sorrows comfort them.”

National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children: On Sat., Sep. 14th, 2019, Citizens for a Pro-Life Society, Priests for Life and the Pro-Life Action League will co-sponsor the 7th annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, calling on pro-life Americans to honor the gravesites of our aborted brothers and sisters. Solemn prayer vigils will be conducted at these gravesites, of which there are 52 across the United States, as well as at dozens of other sites dedicated in memory of aborted children. By participating in the National Day of Remembrance, visiting these solemn memorial places at other times of the year, and spreading the word about this prayer campaign, you are helping to humanize our aborted brothers and sisters and deepening your own commitment to ending the injustice of abortion. Sacred Heart Church Bell Tower Sandblasting & Painting: Yes, it is getting done! We need one sunny day for touchup painting which includes the overhang above the west entrance doors. The church entrance doors and the soffit (eaves) of the overhang need to be painted by parish volunteers. The water damaged walls above the stairway in the south entrance of the church will be sandblasted and painted as well. The left photo below shows the base of the tower being sandblasted. The other two photos show that it was not easy to paint the Cross on top of the bell tower! Cling to the Cross for Salvation on a ladder!
